Throne Speech Gives Peace Plans

Redistribution of Federal Seats Planned This Session

OTTAWA, March 14.—(CP)—Many of the measures Parliament will be asked to consider at the present session will be concerned with world reconstruction and the establishment of an enduring peace, the Speech From the Throne disclosed today.

The speech, read to members of the Senate and the Commons by the Governor-General, did not indicate what form these measures might take. It said, however, that Parliament will be asked:

1. To approve the recent $1,250,000,000 loan to the United Kingdom.
2. To make provision for the redistribution of representation in the House of Commons.
3. To make provision for the permanent armed forces.
4. To complete consideration of a "veteran's charter."
5. To approve a bill clarifying the definition of Canadian citizenship.

6. To place in statutory form a number of orders-in-council to which it is desired to give permanent legislative effect.
7. To make a number of amendments to existing statutes.

THE SPEECH DID not state which amendments would be put in permanent legislative form.

Only essential wartime controls needed to prevent inflation, are being retained.

Parliament will be asked to make provision for permanent armed forces.

A special Commons committee on veterans' affairs will be reconstituted.

Special efforts are being made to increase supplies of building material for housing.

Parliament will deal with redistribution of House of Commons representation.

The Canadian Citizenship Bill legislating implementing orders-in-council and amendments to statutes will come before the House.

Canada will give "utmost support" to the United Nations Organization.

New legislative proposals may come from the Dominion-Provincial conference.

Police Arrest Pair For Robbery Here

A determined drive by city police to curb the growing number of violent robberies on the city showed quick results Wednesday afternoon with the arrest of Peter Brule and Edgar Dumont, who are alleged by police to have beaten up and robbed A. Kaiser of Winfield, about 1 a.m. Wednesday.

THE ARRESTS WERE MADE by Det. Sgt. J. E. Peterson who spotted one of the men on 101 street. Arrest of the second was made shortly after.

Kaiser was taken to the Royal Alexandra hospital early Wednesday suffering from severe bruises to his left eye and his face, and with deep cuts on his forehead and upper lip. He told police he had been attacked at the entrance to a lane running off 103 avenue near 97 street and that his attacker had taken a watch and about $12 in cash from him.

The Winfield resident was the third person to be beaten up in the city by thugs within a week. A Chinese and an elderly woman, both of Edmonton, had previously been knocked down by thugs who demanded money.

Both Chief Constable Reg Jennings and Det. Insp. Bert Petheram were highly complimentary of the work of Det.-Sgt. Peterson, who has been carrying out investigations into the robberies.

DUMONT AND BRULE were remanded until March 21 when they appeared in city court Thursday.

"Not Fit for Livestock"

House Told Rural Schools In Alberta Are Disgrace

Conditions in Alberta's rural schools are "disgraceful", L. C. Halmrast (SC, Warner) charged when he spoke in the debate on the budget in the Legislature on Wednesday. He was the first speaker in the debate when the house convened at 3 p.m.

HE CONTENDED THAT some Northern Alberta schools are conducted in buildings which were not fit even to stable livestock. "Some are in old log buildings and some in old stores," he said.

More attention should be devoted to the rural school system, particularly in regard to provision of better buildings.

Mr. Halmrast told of having seen motion pictures showing various Alberta schools and of having concluded therefrom that much improvement was required.

HE DECLARED THAT the enlarged school division system in-

Minister Says:

No Decision On New School Of Agriculture

Final decision on location of the projected agriculture school in Alberta which was forecast in the 1946-47 estimates has not yet been made, according to Hon. D. B. Mac-Millan, minister of agriculture, when he made a report on his department during the budget debate in the Legislature Wednesday.

THERE ARE FEW PLACES in the province that have not asked to have the new establishment nearby, the minister said, but the agricultural education board set up by the Legislature a year ago would meet shortly and discuss plans for the school. All possible areas are to be inspected and carefully reviewed before any decision is reached.

"It should be borne in mind, however," he intimated, "that the Olds School of Agriculture is relatively closer to all points in the south of the province than Vermil-

Demonstrations Banned by Iran

LONDON, March 14—(Reuters)—Premier Ahmed Qavam today clamped down on all political demonstrations in Iran "owing to the menace to political freedom," the Tehran radio reported.

The move came two days after the Iranian parliament had dissolved following a series of demonstrations in the capital with occasional violence by supporters of the Left-Wing Tudeh party who tried to prevent legislation to extend the life of the House.

Under Iranian laws elections can not be held while foreign troops are in the country.

Russ Troops Wheel Toward Turk Border

TEHRAN, March 14. — (AP)—The column of Russian troops which left Tabriz in Azerbaijan was reported today to have swung westward in the direction of the Turkish border.

Marshal Ivan Bagramian, Russian expert on tank warfare and campaigning in difficult terrain, has been in Tabriz two or three weeks, sources disclosed last night. Bagramian made his reputation as commander on the Baltic front in the Second Great War.

The Russian column which left Tabriz at first was reported moving northward toward the Soviet border. At Oarand, however, it turned westward toward Khoi, north of Lake Urmia and near the Turkish border.

Tabriz is about 40 miles directly east of the lake.

OTHER SOVIET forces were reported yesterday to have moved south of the lake at Miyanduab, near the Iraq border.

Khoi is 80 miles south and slightly east of Mt. Ararat. This Turkish landmark stands just below the areas of Kars and Ardahan, which Russia had said should be ceded back to her.

Moving mostly at night, another column was reported at Mianeh, southeast of Lake Urmia and the northern terminus of the railroad

Bevin Declares:

Britain to Regret Any Russ Pressure on Iran

LONDON, March 14.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin declared today Britain would "regret" any settlement between Russia and Iran which "appeared to be extracted" from the Tehran government under duress while Soviet forces are still occupying the country.

MR. BEVIN TOLD the House of Commons that despite the continued presence of Soviet troops in Iran the British government had taken no decision to put British troops back in the troubled area.

"Nor," he added, "have His Majesty's government taken any steps to open negotiations with the Iranian government for the return of British troops."

British troops, evacuating Iran March 2 under the Anglo-Soviet-Iran treaty agreement, moved across the border into Iraq.

Reviewing the Iranian situation up to the date of the agreed withdrawal, Mr. Bevin said the British government had received the "most categorical assurances" from Generalissimo Stalin and the Soviet government that Iran's integrity would be respected.

"We were assured," the foreign minister added, "that there was no intention of taking aggressive action against her (Iran)."

Recent Strike Hits Delivery Of Machinery

Due to the U.S steel strike, there is sure to be some disappointment among Canadian farmers concerning delivery of new machinery and implements this spring and summer, H. McNeil, sales manager for the Massey-Harris Co., Ltd., of Canada, said in an interview here Thursday.

MR. McNEIL IS with a group of top Massey-Harris officials in Edmonton for a three-day conference with Alberta branch heads of the firm being held in the Macdonald hotel.

Mr. McNeil said he was "delighted" with the progress being made on the new $400,000 warehouse being built by the company in Edmonton. Excavation for the basement is now well under way.

The steel strike has put back production at least four weeks and as Canada obtains 50 per cent of her steel from American sources the effect on farm machinery production is certain to be felt, the implement sales manager pointed out.

SOME KINDS OF machinery are only obtainable in the United States. Due to the war there have been no stockpiles.

L. T. Richie, assistant manager for Canadian sales; S. L. Tallman, Toronto, of the industrial division of the firm, and D. B. McPherson, Calgary, branch manager are attending the conference along with J. A. Hills, Edmonton manager and other officials of the firm in Alberta.

Crossing Crash Takes Second Life

A railway crossing accident four miles north of Camrose last Saturday morning claimed its second victim Thursday with the death early this morning of 19-year-old Violet Mareck of Kingman. The young school teacher was a passenger in the car driven by Roy Harchen, also of Kingman, that was struck by a southbound CNR train.

MISS MARECK WAS TAKEN to the St. Mary's hospital at Camrose last Saturday suffering from a dislocated shoulder, fractured hip and internal injuries. She died at 2:30 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Jack Keech, sister of the car driver, died in the Camrose hospital a few hours after the accident. Harchen suffered multiple fracture of the ribs, a fractured elbow and shock. He has been released from hospital.

Shorter Hours Are Opposed by Manufacturers

Should the government of Alberta institute shorter hours of work with the same or increased take-home pay, it would place industries in this province in an unfavorable position in national and international markets, according to a brief presented to the agricultural committee of the Alberta Legislature on Thursday morning by representatives of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Alberta Branch.

A. J. MAURE, chairman of the Alberta branch's legislation committee, acted as spokesman for the manufacturers' group. He was supported by members of the association, including E. G. Ellerton, chairman Edmonton branch; Thomas Shenhurst, Alberta secretary and others.

CALGARY, March 14.— (CP) — A verdict of suicide was returned by a coroner's jury yesterday inquiring into the death of Pte. Frederick Lukwig Dyszke, 42, Edmonton, shot and killed in a tower at the Seebe internment camp Monday noon.

The inquest was held here. In the verdict the jury stated Dyszke "committed suicide by discharging an army rifle causing instantaneous death from extensive injuries to the face and brain."

BORN IN POLAND, Dyszke had worked as a trapper in the Northwest Territories after coming to Canada in 1926, and later was employed at Canada Packers in Edmonton before enlisting in the army in October, 1943.

He served with the Essex Scottish Regiment overseas for one year, eight months of that time in Northwest Europe.

Wealthy Iranians Get Out of Tehran

TEHRAN, March 14.—(Reuters)—A number of wealthy Iranians, including some politicians, left here yesterday after learning of the announcement by the United States state department that Russian troops were on the move in the direction of the Iranian capital.

Some have gone to southern Iran and others abroad.

CAFES WHICH ARE USUALLY crowded were almost empty yesterday.

The bazaar, business quarter of the capital, remained open.

It was learned today that Gen. Ivan Bagramyan, Armenian-born Soviet tank expert who was reported yesterday to have arrived at Tabriz, capital of Persian Azerbaijan, actually has been there for some time.

On the whole, Iranians are confident that the destiny of their country is linked with important international interests and that it is a "Big Three worry."

Goering "Tested" Air Force By Giving Help to Franco

By NOLAND NORGAARD

NUERNBERG, March 14.—(AP)—Hermann Goering testified before the International Military Tribunal today that he asked Hitler to send help to Generalissimo Franco during the Spanish civil war "to prevent the spread of Communism and to try our young air force experimentally."

"AT THAT TIME," said Goering of Nazi intervention in Spain, "I had an opportunity to see if we had the proper equipment, and I saw to it that the personnel got some experience.

"Young men continually went and returned."

He said Franco asked for aid, "particularly air aid."

Goering, resuming direct testimony in his own behalf, boasted that his luftwaffe was responsible for the swift conquest of Poland.

29 Collaboration Charges Denied

By E. L. WILLIAMS

WINNIPEG, March 14—(CP)—Cpl. (Acting Sgt.) John Hugh Harvey of the Royal Army Medical Corps today pleaded not guilty before an all-British court martial on 29 charges of collaboration with the Japanese and ill-treatment of fellow-prisoners in a camp at Oeyama, Japan.

Sgt. Harvey yesterday was acquitted on a charge of manslaughter, arising from the death of Pte. John U. Friesen of the Winnipeg Grenadiers who died in the Japanese camp two years ago.

BEFORE HARVEY ENTERED his plea today, Defence Counsel J. J. Kelly of Winnipeg made a motion to have one of the 29 charges quashed. He said it was bad in law.

The charge alleged Sgt. Harvey failed to deliver cigarets to three members of the Winnipeg Grenadiers. The cigarets had been received in Red Cross parcels.

Mr. Kelly said the charge was bad in law because it referred to three different occasions and three different acts. The rules of the court martial procedure called for stating one offence only. The motion was disallowed.

Charge Iran Has "Plunderous Territorial" Aims on Russia

By HENRY SHAPIRO
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

MOSCOW, March 14—(Via telephone to London)—(BUP)—The fact that Premier Stalin personally answered Winston Churchill's speech was taken today as an indication of the gravity with which the Soviet Union regards the former British premier's remarks.

IZVESTIA FOLLOWED up Stalin's denunciation of Churchill with an article charging that Iranian and "foreign" reactionaries were attempting to undermine Anglo-Soviet relations and promote a conflict between the Soviet Union and other powers.

Stalin's interview with a Pravda reporter was published on the front pages of all central newspapers. It was practically the sole topic of conversation in Soviet and foreign circles in Moscow.

The Izvestia article said that foreign powers since World War I have instigated and supported attempts by Iranian ruling groups to obtain Soviet territory in the Caucasus and north of Moscow.

THE ARTICLE SAID that one or two Iranian politicians who initiated that policy in 1919 still exercised great political influence in Iran.

Nikolai Alexeyev, presumably an Izvestia staff member, wrote the

By CHESTER BLOOM

OTTAWA, March 14.—His Excellency, the Governor-General, Earl of Athlone, as one of his last official acts in Canada, opened the twentieth parliament's second session today with ceremony approaching but not yet equalling post-war pomp.

ESCORTED by units of the Canadian Army, Air Force and Navy in service, not dress, uniforms, His Excellency arrived at the Parliament buildings shortly before 3 p.m., amid the booming of a 19-gun salute by cannon in Major Hill park. Mounted members of the RCMP lined the approaches and walks to the senate side of the building. Thousands of spectators gathered to watch the ceremony.

But the absence of the pre-war brilliant dress uniforms conduced to give somewhat of a war atmosphere to the proceedings. Nevertheless the guard of honor of some 100

Free Alleged Spy Suspect on Bail

OTTAWA, March 14—(CP)—Mrs. Emma Woikin was released from custody for the first time in a month and became the second of four persons charged with giving confidential information to Russia to be released on bail.

Her brother, John Konkin of Blaine Lake, Sask., guaranteed the $1,500 bail set yesterday by Magistrate Glen Strike.

With the three others already charged, she is slated to appear before Magistrate Strike again next Wednesday morning.

COURT OFFICIALS said Mrs. Woikin, formerly a cipher clerk with external affairs department, had not elected how she would be tried, although it had been reported earlier that she could not be freed until she did.

Meanwhile a second interim report from the Royal Commission on Russian espionage activity, identifying new persons to be charged, was reported imminent and informed sources said they believed it would be made public either today or tomorrow.

lon is to points in the Peace River country."

Every effort will be made, he stated, to avoid the mistake made when the schools were first established and they were placed in districts without sufficient diversity of crop or of conditions to justify such an institution.

RESOLUTIONS which had appeared before the assembly would indicate, the minister said, that needs of Alberta farmers were being ignored by his department. This he denied as he listed many new services being extended to the province's farmers.

The total sum voted for the department had been increased in proportion to the increase in the total estimates, he said, and quoted from figures in this year's budget and those of the budget of 1929-1930. He selected that year, he said, because it was one of relative prosperity and the charge could not be made that he had used figures influenced by depression conditions.

"One would think from the emphasis placed on it in this house that the weed problem was something new," he said, referring to a resolution from CCF desks asking for intensification of weed control measures. In denial of this he gave experiences from his own career when he said he was buying grain in the south country.

HE REPEATED a tribute which had been paid to his department by Dr. W. C. Lowedermilk, soil erosion expert from the United States, who paid a recent visit to the province and who had told the minister, "You have a splendid staff who know their job, and I have no fear for the future of the province of Alberta."

He was speaking at the time of the efforts being made to control the soil erosion problems of the province by the planting of forage crops, which he said not only fights the weed and erosion menace but also returns fertility to the land.

Other items which the minister said were new to his department were those of rural electrification, frozen food lockers, financial assistance and scholarships to veterinarians and others.

As the minister concluded his speech he referred hesitantly to references from opposition benches that his department was not sufficiently progressive.

"WE HAVE EXPERIENCED the most progressive and the only progressive ten years in the history of this province", he exclaimed. "If we are not progressive, what were the other governments before us doing?"

"We haven't finished our job and we will continue to extend our services", he said as he stated that he had ever assumed everything to be perfect in his department.

Every farmer knows that every cent expended by the Legislature is eventually for his benefit, he said.

nor did it indicate what existing statutes will be amended.

However, cabinet ministers have stated in recent months that foreign exchange control regulations will be placed on statutory basis. The ministers also have forecast amendments to the Criminal Code and to the Judges Salaries Act.

The meetings of the co-ordinating committee of the Dominion-Provincial Conference last month were mentioned in the speech, but no details of what went on at the gatherings were disclosed.

"AS A RESULT of the conference, there may be further legislative proposals," said the speech.

This was taken to indicate that if the conference reaches a successful conclusion at its next meeting in April legislation likely will be introduced in parliament to cover the new taxation agreements.

Besides referring to the recent United Nations Organization meetings in London, the speech mentioned the Canadian participation in the Allied control of Germany and Japan.

"TIME WILL BE required for the drafting of the treaties of peace," said the speech. "A conference is to be held in Paris later in the year to consider proposed treaties with Italy, Finland, Hungary, Roumania and Bulgaria. Canada will be represented at this conference."

The turmoil which had followed in the wake of war had created new problems for governments in all parts of the globe. The world was full of unrest. Hunger, privation and suffering had become the lot of millions. Other millions were homeless, many of them in exile. The problems which face the statesmen of every nation were formidable indeed.

"OF WORLD PROBLEMS demanding immediate action, the most pressing is the provision of food to those peoples facing acute shortage, and in some regions, widespread famine."

Efforts were being made to keep employment and income at a high level. Moves were being made to restore former markets and to obtain new markets and to expand peacetime exports. Export credits were being extended to wartime allies.

The agreement to loan money to Britain would help maintain the British market for Canadian food products and other exports.

CANADA WAS continuing to experience dislocations in the transition from war to peace, but "in no other country has the transition proceeded more speedily or with less friction."

The gradual lifting of wartime restrictions and controls was referred to in the speech which said that "only such controls are being continued as are deemed necessary to prevent inflation and to safeguard the public welfare".

The demobilization of both men and women in the forces was taking place rapidly and every effort was being made to ensure the orderly re-establishment of veterans in civil life.

Except for personnel in the occupation force in Germany, practically all troops now were home.

HOUSING CONTINUED to be in great demand, but, despite shortage of materials and labor, a "very large number of houses" have been constructed since last VE-day, May 8. Special efforts were being made to expand the supply of building materials to meet the demand for permanent housing, and, meanwhile, to provide emergency shelter.

The speech concluded on a personal tone with the governor-general, the Earl of Athlone, interjecting a farewell message. He leaves here Saturday on completion of his term of office. His successor, Viscount Alexander, will arrive here next month.

leading to Tehran. A hard-surface road also connects Mianeh with Kazvin, Tehran and Karaj, 20 miles north of Tehran. Soviet tanks, fuel and troops were seen yesterday at Karaj.

THE RUSSIAN garrison at Tabriz, capital of the self-proclaimed autonomous state of Azerbaijan, was reliably reported to have been doubled or trebled in the past few weeks.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—The United States government is of the opinion that reports of extensive Russian troop movements in Iran, a state department official said today.

THE DEPARTMENT is not officially releasing the contents of these reports at this time but it can be stated in general that they show three Russian forces of strong but not massive size distributed as follows:

One column at Karaj, 23 miles from Tehran, Iranian capital where, American officials believe, a Leftist coup may be planned by Tudeh (Communist) party leaders to instal a pro-Soviet government under the sponsorship of the Moscow command.

Another column has passed the town of Marand north of Urmia Lake and turned toward Rhoi in the country of Kurdish tribesmen along the Turkish border.

THE THIRD COLUMN is at Mianeh, south of the communication centre of Tabriz, and in position to go either toward Tehran or toward the Turkish-Iraq border.

Because of the nearness of the forces to the area of the Kurds, who inhabit a three-nation area centred around the frontier junction of Turkey, Iran and Iraq, there is strong speculation here that one major Russian objective may be to launch a Kurdish uprising which would simultaneously involve all three of the Middle Eastern countries.

OF THE REPORTS which have come in Michael J. McDermott, state department press officer, would say only that they had been received and that they continue to bear out the information given correspondents earlier this week when the state department announced dispatch of a note to Moscow asking what Russia is up to in Iran.

From other sources it was learned that the best available evidence is that the Russian forces are not in the nature of massive armies but small mobile striking units of tanks and cavalry on missions which the Russians have not yet disclosed.

The Russian go-it-alone policy had diplomatic authorities here concerned lest the whole job of writing the peace for World War II be imperiled.

Canada General Honored by U.S.

OTTAWA, March 14—(CP)—Award to Maj.-Gen. H. F. G. Letson, CB, CBE, MC, ED, commander of the Canadian army staff, of the United States Oak Leaf cluster to the Legion of Merit, degree of commander, was announced today by Defence Minister Abbott.

Gen. Letson, whose appointment as secretary to Canada's new Governor-General, Viscount Alexander, was announced earlier this week, received the award from Gen. Eisenhower in Washington today. Gen. Letson is chairman of the Canadian joint staff in Washington and previously was military attache in the American capital. He was awarded the Legion of Merit, degree of commander, in 1944, and the new award is equivalent to a Bar to that decoration.

GEN. LETSON first went to Washington as military attache in 1940, after serving from the outbreak of war as commander of the Vancouver area and commander of the 14th Infantry Brigade. He served in Ottawa as adjutant-general from February, 1943, until August, 1944, when he was again posted to Washington.

Blairmore Mines Send China Coal

CALGARY, March 14 — (CP)— Shipment of 30,000 tons of slack coal to China has been contracted for by the West Canadian Collieries of Blairmore, William Bird, manager, said in a long distance telephone call interview this morning.

Slack coal is the residue left after the higher grade coal is screened. The Blairmore mines have one boatload already en route from Seattle to Hong Kong and expect another boatload to be on the way inside 24 hours. Mr. Bird felt that the contract would be fulfilled by the middle of April.

THIS MARKS THE first time that this has been done by a Canadian mining firm and Mr. Bird said that it is adding to the greatest boom in the history of Crow's Nest Pass.

Asked if he thought there would be other similar contracts he replied "undoubtedly, the world supply of coal is so small, that we have received inquiries from Buenos Aires, New Caledonia and many other places and we expect to be making a shipment to France next week."

"This will assure continued operation in the Pass," he added the two mines of the company are employing 1,000 men and are stepping up production to meet the demand. Canadian requirements must be taken care of first before the export market is considered.

"I saw a gun in Sand's hand. he shot Adams twice in the leg," Miss Kasasis told the court. "The boy (Adams) went and sat in a booth—Albert went after him with a stick and hit the boy over the head with it—he hit Adams once—then the boy fainted and fell on the floor," she testified.

W. FROST, A PATRON of the cafe, told of entering the cafe about midnight and seeing the accused backed up against a coffee urn with a gun in his hand.

"I said: 'Put that thing away before you hurt somebody'," Frost recounted. He testified that Sand said something about "six of them being onto me," and then he heard a shot fired.

"I decided it was no place for me and so got out—I didn't stop to see if anyone was hurt," Frost said.

FROST TOLD THE court that he didn't see anyone bothering Sand, and when asked if anyone was attempting to hit the special constable replied, "No. Everybody was standing back."

Constables Bernie Nicholson, Norman Ford, Pete Tyler, D. W. S. Ellis and Detective Frank Kingett gave evidence concerning their investigations. A revolver, said to have been taken from Sands on the night of the shooting, three shells and two empty cartridges, and a blackjack were put in as exhibits by Crown Prosecutor C. G. Purvis, KC.

DET. KINGZETT READ a statement given and signed by the accused about nine hours after the shooting occurred. In the statement Sand said that two or three persons grabbed him from behind and pulled him to the floor, "I called for help—figured I'd scare them by reaching for my gun—I remember reaching for it but I don't remember if I got it out or not—everything blacked out."

The detective said that Sand appeared to have been in a fracas when he questioned him and "not at all well". He added that Sand's neck appeared "particularly stiff."

The accused was released on bail of $3,000.

Rain at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, March 14.—(CP)—It is not uncommon to have rain in Winnipeg in March but it came a little earlier this year with an hour-long shower yesterday to clean winter-laden streets. March 25, 1945, there was a thunder-storm.

ARMY STUDY

NEW DELHI.—(CP)—Indian soldiers now can study for university careers while still in the forces. The army's highest examination, the Indian Army Special Certificate of Education, now is recognized by most universities and boards in India as the equivalent of matriculation.

Shorter Hours

most provinces and were as short as any imposed in the country. It pointed out that there are shortages in all materials and that a reduction in hours of labor would not have tendency to alleviate that shortage.

THERE IS NO unemployment other than purely temporary at the present time, the manufacturers contended. It was largely made up of unemployables and returned men not yet properly located.

"The shorter hours proposed for Alberta, with the same 'take-home' pay would increase wages in most cases 20 per cent. And such an increase under price ceilings would be an absolute injustice to industry in this province, and ultimately against the best interest of the workers themselves," the brief stated.

IT WOULD BE FOLLY, Mr. Maure argued, to institute any radical departures in labor legislation until the Dominion-provincial conference comes to some agreement on taxation juriadiction and other problems.

Another point to be considered, he stated, was the impact of higher prices and shorter hours on the agricultural economy of the province, since farmers have not the privilege of advancing their prices to meet local conditions of higher prices which would result.

EMPLOYER RIGHTS should be preserved in view of the fact that under existing legislation unions assume no financial responsibility, so that an irresponsible union may cause irreparable damage to an employer.

The union shop, the closed shop and the maintenance of membership clauses in existing legislation constitute a grave breach of individual liberty, the manufacturers stated, since the worker had no choice but to join a union or lose his job.

THE HIGH COST of housing, prices of which have risen so that it is beyond the capacity of the small or average wage-earner to buy a home, was used in the argument presented by R. M. Dingwall, president of the Edmonton Builders' Exchange, against any shortening of hours or increases in pay among the workers.

There is a shortage of construction workers, and to shorten the hours they work and to increase the wages would only increase the difficulties now facing those trying to solve the housing problems of the country.

House Opening

in navy and air force blue and army khaki battledress gave some color to the scene under a brilliant, warm spring sun.

The RCN division of the guard of honor were a special party from Halifax. The army guard came from the Royal Canadian Regiment and a detachment of the RCAF units were picked men.

THE CANADIAN Red Ensign not yet officially designated the flag of Canada, but used in the armed forces, flew from parliament tower.

The inspecting party was done by units from the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

Accompanying the Governor-General were Capt. the Viscount Lascelles, Capt. Edson Sherwood and Flight-Lieut. John E. McClure as aide-de-camps. Hon. aide-de-camp of His Excellency was Lt. Col. M. C. Grison, Ottawa area commandant.

Escorted to the office of the Speaker of the Senate, the Governor-General remained there until the hour of opening, when he proceeded with his aides to the Throne between lines of uniformed officers representing the armed forces and members of the Senate.

JUSTICES of the Supreme Court of Canada were seated in their robes at their wool-sack before the Throne. The floor of the Senate was filled with Senators and high officials of the government and their wives. Though not yet approaching the brilliance of pre-war ceremonies, the opening surpassed in color last year's initial opening of the new house and marked the gradual approach to peace-time pomp.

To Aid Scientists

Russia Lays Down 5-Year Atomic Energy Program

MOSCOW, March 14.—(AP)—Russia has laid down a five-year program for the development of atomic energy, it was revealed today.

The atomic program was revealed by Sergei Vavilov, president of the Soviet Academy of Sciences.

Writing in the government newspaper, Izvestia, Vavilov said that under the program—part of the new five-year-plan—"physicists, chemists and engineers of all specialities will, of course, be engaged in atomic questions, the means of releasing internal atomic energy and kindred problems."

Vavilov said that the liberation of the atom will reveal vast new horizons.

He said that the government was initiating extraordinary measures to aid scientists in all fields, including atomic research, to attain directives laid down by Generalissimo Stalin to equal and exceed all scientific progress abroad.

Goering

to develop a bomber capable of flying to the United States and back, insisting that they do this work "expeditiously in case America entered the war."

The lack of aluminum and technological planning caused him to forego development of long-range, four-engine bombers, Goering said.

He said that in planning the air force "I had to ascertain who could be the potential opponents in the war to start with.

"THE CHIEF OPPONENT was Russia, but of course England, France and Italy had to be considered."

The luftwaffe was developing jet aircraft even before the war, he said, adding proudly, "I am solely responsible for rearmament of the air force in every way."

Goering also accepted "full and complete responsibility" for all anti-Jewish economic decrees which bore his signature. He told the court that although he received many written and verbal orders from Hitler to carry out anti-Jewish laws, he did "not propose in any way to hide behind the Fuehrer."

TURNING TO THE GERMAN departure from the League of Nations and her institution of rearmament, Goering told the tribunal:

"When it was clear that other powers were unwilling to disarm and that a power in the east—Russia—was carrying out unheard of rearmament, it became necessary for us to rearm in the interests of the security of the Reich."

Discussing abandonment of the Versailles Treaty, he argued that "all complaints about German minorities met with indifference or only well meant advice."

Goering also said he "deeply regretted" the assassination in the 1934 party blood purge of people who had nothing at all to do with the (Capt. Ernest) Roehm revolt."

GOERING SAID the killing of Gen. Kurt von Schleicher, former German chancellor, and his wife in June 1934 was a sad accident.

Goering said von Schleicher reached for a pistol "possibly to kill himself", and two agents who had come to arrest him raised their weapons.

"Mrs. von Schleicher threw herself upon one of them", he continued. "The pistol went off".

Goering said the "number of victims of the purge often were exaggerated. As far as I remember 72 to 76 persons were executed".

HE BRISTLED when questioned about the "master race", declaring "you would never find that term in my writings or speeches. In my view if you are a master you don't have to emphasize it".

Decision Deferred On Railway Wages

OTTAWA, March 14.—(CP)—The National War Labor Board yesterday reserved judgment on a wage increase application which the Railway Association of Canada described as the opening of a new drive for general increases to Canada's 200,000 railway employees.

The application was made by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees (AFL) on behalf of some 30,000 workers on seven Canadian railways engaged in track maintenance and construction work. Basis of the union's case was that men in the railways' maintenance of way departments were paid lower rates than men performing similar work in other departments.

THE RAILWAYS, opposing the application, said the increase asked would average 14 cents an hour and would cost $13,152,000 a year—a figure which the Union said in rebuttal "seeched extravagant." The railways said the increase was asked at a time when revenues were starting to decline.

Railway officials said applications pending from various organizations would, if approved, cost the railways a total of $58,000,000 a year and if the increase asked by the maintenance of way employees was extended to all other groups the total cost would be $72,530,000.

U.K. Press Raps Stalin Attack On Churchill

LONDON, March 14.—(CP)—British newspapers today criticized Premier Stalin for his attack on Winston Churchill and called for a Big Three meeting soon to attempt to improve relations between Russia and her two wartime allies.

A foreign office spokesman said there probably would be no official comment on Stalin's statements, since Mr. Churchill has no status in the government. Official circles indicated that the former prime minister would be left to speak for himself. He is scheduled to broadcast a speech of "world importance" from New York city tomorrow night, authoritative sources there said.

THE MUTUAL broadcasting system said Mr. Churchill would discuss in his half hour speech "latest developments" in connection with his recent Fulton, Mo., address. He is scheduled to start speaking at 8:30 p.m. MST.

The importance of what he will say will be heightened by the presence on the dais with him of 42 ambassadors and ministers to the United States, as well as official representatives of the United Nations Organization. It is still uncertain whether Andrei A. Gromyko, Russian ambassador, would attend.

STALIN'S REMARKS, which were in the form of an interview yesterday in the Communist party newspaper Pravda, were described in a dispatch from Moscow as the sharpest attack the Russian leader had ever made on anyone except a foe during wartime.

Stalin accused Mr. Churchill of spreading "lies" in his Fulton, Mo., speech, March 5, in which Mr. Churchill proposed a virtual British-American military alliance. Stalin described Mr. Churchill as a "warmonger" and said the former British prime minister was asking for "war with the USSR".

Among the British newspapers urging a meeting of the Big Three were the Yorkshire Post and three London publications, the Daily Mail, the Daily Sketch and The Times.

THE DAILY SKETCH declared Stalin's remarks were "unjust and violent in character", and asserted that "abuse is no effective answer to the vital points" raised by Mr. Churchill at Fulton.

The Times said the "moment has been reached little more than six months after the final defeat of the enemy—when an international agreement between the partners in victory is openly broken, and relations between them are being conducted in the naked terms of rival power".

Reds Demand Turk Concessions

Russia reportedly has demanded Turkey cede Kars and Ardahan regions (shaded area in map) which lie along border between Turkey and Georgia and Armenia. Turkish territories once were part of Czarist Russia. Other demands include revision of Dardanelles regulations to give USSR bases and free transit of straits.

Complete Text Speech from the Throne

OTTAWA, March 14.—(CP)—Text of Speech From the Throne opening Parliament follows:

Honorable Members of the Senate:
Members of the House of Commons:

It is just over six months since Canada emerged from six long years of war. The turmoil which has followed in the wake of war has created new problems for governments in all parts of the globe. The world is full of unrest. Hunger, privation and suffering, have become the lot of millions. Other millions are homeless, many of them in exile. The problems which face the statesmen of every nation are formidable indeed.

IT IS ONLY in the light of the world situation that all our problems can be seen in true perspective. The future of our own and of every country depends upon success in the task of world reconstruction, and the establishment of an enduring peace. Many of the measures you will be called upon to consider at the present session will be concerned with this wider aspect of human affairs.

OF WORLD PROBLEMS demanding immediate action, the most pressing is the provision of food to those peoples facing acute shortage, and, in some regions, widespread famine. The chance of a peaceful reconstruction of the world depends on food. The shortage at the present time is very great. The problem, moreover, is not only for the next few months, but also for the next few years. Unless the need is met, grave disorders, endangering peace itself, must be anticipated.

The government is seeking by all practicable means to make available for export the maximum supply of foodstuffs. Every encouragement is being given to increasing production. The gravity of the situation demands, on the part of the people of Canada, a united and wholehearted effort.

THE MAINTENANCE of a high level of employment and national income is a fundamental aim of government policy. Employment and income alike are bound up with the restoration and expansion of world trade. To the productive employment of vast numbers of Canadians, export markets are essential.

The government has steadily pursued its efforts to restore former markets, to secure new markets and generally to expand peace-time exports. In pursuit of this policy, export credits, for which additional provision was made at the last session, have been extended to several of our wartime allies.

AT THIS SESSION you will be asked to approve an agreement, recently concluded, for a loan to the United Kingdom which will help maintain the British market for Canadian food products and other exports. The agreement will also contribute to the steady development of trade between the two countries, the removal of trade barriers and the free use of currencies for international trade.

While Canada, in common with all countries, continues to experience dislocation inevitable to a period of transition from war to peace, in no other country has the transition proceeded more speedily or with less friction.

CONVERSION OF WAR industries to civilian production is progressing steadily, with a minimum of industrial strife, and increased co-operation between labor and management.

Wartime restrictions and controls are being removed as rapidly as conditions will permit. Price ceilings on many articles have been suspended. Wage and salary controls have been relaxed. Certain subsidies have been discontinued. Only such controls are being continued as are deemed necessary to prevent inflation and to safeguard the public welfare.

Except for the forces still employed in connection with the occupation of Germany, practically all of our armed forces are now home. Demobilization of both men and women is taking place rapidly. Every effort is being made to ensure the orderly re-establishment of veterans in civil life.

TO COMPLETE consideration of the "Veterans Charter" you will be asked to reconstitute the special committee on veterans affairs.

You will also be asked to make provision for the permanent armed forces, to the composition of which serious consideration has been given.

In our own as in other countries the demand for housing continues greatly to exceed the supply. Despite shortages of materials and labor, a very large number of houses have been constructed since V-E-Day. Special attention has been made to expand the supply of building materials to meet the demand for permanent housing, and, meanwhile, to provide emergency shelter. The Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation has been established. Its activities are being closely coordinated with those of Wartime Housing Limited and the veterans' land act administration, with a view to having all matters relating to the construction of housing brought, as largely as possible, under the administration of one minister of the crown.

YOU WILL BE ASKED to make provision for the redistribution of representation in the House of Commons.

Among other measures to which your attention will be invited will be bills to revise and clarify the definition of Canadian citizenship, and to bring the legislation respecting national status, naturalization and immigration into conformity with the definition of citizenship; bills to place in statutory form a number of orders in council to which it is desired to give permanent legislative effect; also a number of amendments to existing statutes.

SINCE THE CLOSE of the last session, the initial meeting of the general assembly of the United Nations has been held in London. The assembly will conclude its first session in New York in September. The security council, the economic and social council, the commission on atomic energy, and the international court of justice have been established. Our country was represented at the general assembly by a delegation including ministers of the crown, other members of parliament, and leading officials of the public service. Canada was elected to the economic and social council and to the commission on atomic energy. A distinguished Canadian was elected a judge of the international court.

IT IS THE POLICY of my ministers to see that the utmost support is given by Canada to the United Nations Organization.

The problems of peace-making are exacting and arduous.

Germany and Japan continue to be under Allied military control. Early in the year, a Canadian mission was established in Berlin to safeguard Canadian interests in Germany. Canada's interests in Japan are being watched through Canadian membership on the Far Eastern Commission, which recently visited Tokyo. The commission has its headquarters in Washington.

TIME WILL BE required for the drafting of the treaties of peace. A conference is to be held in Paris later in the year to consider proposed treaties with Italy, Finland, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

GE Strike to End Settlement Two U.S. Strikes Sends 275,000 Back to Work

NEW YORK, March 14.—(AP)—Settlement of long-standing strikes against General Motors and General Electric was announced Wednesday, opening the way for the return of 275,000 workers to the task of reconversion.

THE EXPECTED RETURN would slice the United States' strike-idle total to 475,000.

The 113-day-old General Motors strike, which cost an estimated $1,000,000,000 in lost wages, sales and commission and cut the automotive industry's production schedules to one-sixth of advance estimates, was settled at Detroit in mid-afternoon.

A few hours later, settlement of the 57-day-old General Electric dispute was announced in New York.

The 175,000 striking United Auto Workers (CIO) were granted hourly wage boost of 18½ cents—one cent below the figure recommended by President Truman and a fact-finding board.

THE SAME INCREASE—18½ cents an hour—was agreed upon by the General Electric Company and the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) representing 100,000 GE employees.

In the General Motors settlement, the union said adjustment of wage inequalities and "other economic clause" granted brought the total hourly increase to "nearly 19½ cents an hour and "tops the tremendous wage victories already won throughout the automobile industry." However, Harry W. Anderson, GM vice-president, when asked regarding the union's claim that adjustments of wage inequalities would equal the "extra penny," commented:

"Well, that's the union's interpretation. As a matter of fact, no one knows what the adjustments will amount to. They've to be dealt with on a local level and until they are, the amount cannot be determined."

THE AGREEMENT, which the company said would run for two years, will be submitted to the union's General Motors council Friday and then to the strikers for ratification.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW vice-president and top union man in the prolonged negotiations, said the strikers could be back on the job within a week following ratification. The company said previously it expected to be in a position to receive the strikers back to the plants within a week or 10 days after ratification.

A joint labor-management statement said the GE wage increase must receive formal acceptance by the union membership and approval of the National Wage Stabilization Board before it becomes effective.

WHEN GE WORKERS struck Jan. 15, there was a simultaneous walkout of 75,000 employees from Westinghouse Electric Corporation plants and 25,000 from the electrical division of General Motors Corporation.

Electrical workers at GM settled their strike a month ago for an 18½-cent-an-hour increase. Westinghouse is scheduled to resume mediation negotiations here Thursday.

In Washington, Labor Secretary Schwellenbach described the GM settlement as "the most significant" of any reached during current disputes and would permit the country to "long strides" in reconversion.

IT OVERSHADOWED developments on the national labor front which included a continuation of the soft coal wage negotiations in Washington and settlement of a transportation workers strike in Gary, Ind.

The coal negotiations in Washington between John L. Lewis and the bituminous operators got off to a quiet start with presentation of a United Mine Workers (AFL) survey on the miners' position under present workmen's compensation laws.

Mr. Lewis has threatened to call his 400,000 soft coal miners out on strike April 1 unless demands are met for higher wages, a shorter work week and a health and welfare fund for employees.

Bus and street car service was resumed for the first time in three days in Gary, a city of 125,000, when the AFL strikers agreed to submit their wage demands to an arbitration board.

Charge Iran

article. It was the first of a series on Iran, and the only mention of that country in today's Soviet press. Tomorrow Izvestia will deal with Iranian oil policy.

The Soviet press has not published any response to Secretary of State James F. Byrnes note alleging Soviet troop movements in Iran.

IZVESTIA, OFFICIAL government organ, entitled its article "The Aggressive Plans of the Iranian Reactionaries," and said that the situation "demands on the part of the Soviet Union watchfulness of the Iran circles and their foreign political plans."

There was no press or official reaction whatever to the proposition that another Big Three meeting may be held.

Izvestia said that "the ruling Iranian clique—not without help and incitement from outside" launched a program after the First World War to acquire "vast Soviet territories inhabited by Azerbaijanians, Turkomens, Armenians, Kurds, and other nationalities, and very nearly hoped to turn the Caspian sea into an inner Iranian sea."

IN SUPPORT OF the thesis that Iran had followed a consistently anti-Soviet policy Izvestia noted that Former Premier Khakimi, who fled to the Iran government until recently, had been one of the leaders in 1919 in a plot to seize the Soviet Caucasus and Baku.

"This is the same Khakimi who poisoned the atmosphere of Soviet-Iranian relations until the most recent days," Izvestia said.

"Of course," Izvestia added, "such Iranian politicians are not crazy enough not to understand that alone they cannot materialize their territorial claims against the Soviet Union. Therefore they conduct their policy in such a manner as to incite conflict between the Soviet Union and other great powers."

Izvestia recalled that Iran allowed the British to use Azerbaijan as a base for their expeditionary troops which were sent to Baku and Askhabad.

IRAN, IZVESTIA NOTED, submitted to the Versailles peace conference a request for almost half the Caucasus, all of Soviet Azerbaijan, Baku, Soviet Armenia and Daghestan.

Noting that these demands were not considered by Iran, Izvestia said: "Such demands cannot be considered accidental since throughout the whole history of Soviet-Iranian relations certain Iranian politicians conducted a policy intended to provoke conflict between the Soviet Union and the other great powers so they could take advantage of the situation to carry out their own territorial-conquest plans against the Soviet Union."

Canada will be represented at this conference.

A meeting of the co-ordinating committee of the Dominion-provincial conference was held in January. Progress was made in the consideration of proposals submitted by the Dominion and provincial governments. The committee will meet again on April 25.

AS A RESULT of the conference, there may be further legislative proposals.

Members of the House of Commons:

You will be asked to make financial provision for all essential services, and for credits required to maintain export trade and a high level of employment and national income.

Honorable members of the Senate:

Members of the House of Commons:

My term of office is now almost at an end. You have already been informed of the appointment of Field Marshal Viscount Alexander of Tunis as my successor. Lord Alexander will arrive in Canada early in April. As this is the last occasion on which I shall have the honor to address you, may I be allowed to strike a personal note.

In 1914, I was unable to succeed His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught to the position of governor general, for the simple reason that I was at that time a serving soldier. The disappointment I sustained was, however, more than compensated for by my re-appointment in 1940, strange to say, during another world war. It was for me a great honor to have been chosen. The intimate association with my prime minister, ministers, parliament and the people of this great country has brought you all very close to the hearts of Princess Alice and myself.

THE YEARS we have been in Canada have been the most eventful years in world history. It has been with profound admiration that we have witnessed the great part Canada has had in the preservation of world freedom, in the relief of suffering peoples, and in helping to lay the foundations of a new world order.

Princess Alice and I will ever recall that in these momentous years it has been our proud privilege to share in your anxieties and rejoicings, throughout our lives we shall cherish an abiding affection for Canada and her people.

May Divine Providence continue to bless this nation, and to guide the parliament in all its deliberations.

Women are Jobless But 8,000 Openings

MONTREAL, March 14.—(CP)—There are 8,000 jobs open for women in Montreal, yet about 4,000 women are drawing unemployment insurance benefits because of inability to obtain work, it was learned yesterday from officials of the National Employment Service, women's division.

There are many reasons for this paradoxical situation, an NES spokesman said, but these may be summed up briefly: the supply and the demand lie in different fields.

HE asks employers don't favor hiring married women, because of high absentee records. Women over 40—or over 30 in the case of a stenographer—generally have a hard time getting work.

While the demand for stenographers is great, many applicants for office work lack the education for such positions. Rather than accept jobs in industry, they apply for unemployment insurance.

More than 800 orders had been received for domestics with monthly wages in some cases from $70 to $80, but usually such jobs went begging as women feel "their hours will be irregular and their liberty will be restricted."

Lonely Scot Dead in Washington

Highlander Danced on Own Grave: Played Bagpipe Salutes to States

BREMERTON, Wash., March 14.—(AP)—James Gregg, 77-year-old Scot who always serenaded the United States of America on the Fourth of July, died yesterday but not without providing for his own graveside serenade.

His will asked that six kilted Scots—four bagpipes and two drummers—march to his gravesite and play native tunes for the burial service. It provided that each be paid $100 at the conclusion of the ceremony. Date for the funeral has not been set.

GREGG CAME TO THIS AREA 35 years ago and did not miss a year in his serenade to America. Each July 4 morning he donned his kilts, unlimbered his pipes, marched to the post office at the tiny community of Tracyton, and offered a musical salute to his adopted nation.

Several months ago Gregg purchased a site for his grave. Dressed in his kilts, he did a dance there and played his pipes, explaining to the crowd which gathered that he was merely blessing the gravesite.

Rural Schools

stituted by the late Premier Aberhart had equalized education opportunities for rural children in Alberta to a greater degree than was the case in other provinces. There had been vigorous and outspoken opposition to the plan when it was first proposed, but since it has now come into effect all over the province there is general agreement that the institution of the enlarged districts marked a distinct forward step in the field of education.

Still rates had been equalized in each division, Mr. Halmrast said, and suggested that in order to even the burden of taxation across the province it might be necessary to equalize the mill rate throughout the whole province.

Road construction is necessary if pupils in rural schools are to take advantage of centralized schools.

Emphasis on the importance of religious instruction in the schools formed the underlying motive in the address delivered by J. W. Beaudry (SC-St. Paul), when he claimed that such teaching was necessary to give the world's citizens a sense of direction in their lives.

"STATE MONOPOLY of education militates against men's natural freedom of teaching and men's freedom on acquiring knowledge," he said.

During his opening remarks the St. Paul member expressed congratulations to the provincial secretary (Hon. A. J. Hooke) for his avowed purpose of stopping immoral movies and to the minister of public works for his comprehensive five-year road program. He expressed the hope that the minister could see his way to completion of the Redcliff-Cold Lake road as soon as possible.

He suggested that the premier should, at the next Dominion-provincial conference, request completion of railway gaps serving the St. Paul constituency; should press for parity of Canadian and American currency; should protest against the exportation of Canadian timber; also suggested the use of a Canadian citizenship and also support the adoption of a distinctly national flag for Canada.

Alta. School Tax Is Said Too High

SASKATOON, March 14.—(CP)—Complaints made in Alberta and Manitoba the burden of taxation for education is becoming too onerous for people were heard by rural municipalities association delegates yesterday from fraternal meeting during provincial delegates.

The speakers were J. M. Wheatley of Chancellor, president of the Alberta Union of Municipal districts, and J. Spalding, Miniota, representing the Union of Manitoba Municipalities.

Mr. Wheatley went extensively into the question of enlarged school districts, stating that all local interest in the schools had gone, and that there was not a district where school taxes had not been increased.

He also spoke of enlarged municipal areas, and strongly criticized the Alberta government's dismissal of one council, that of Vermilion River, in the northeast corner of the province, for incompetence.

In the past year, he said, 15 Alberta organizations had petitioned the government to remove the burden of school taxation from the land and to place more of it on provincial government and secure aid from Dominion sources.

British Strike Threat Is Fading

COVENTRY, Warwickshire, England, March 14.— (Reuters) — A threatened mass strike of engineering workers in the British motor industry appeared to have been thwarted last night and most factories at Coventry will be at work Thursday, continuing to produce automobiles.

During the last 24 hours Prime Minister Attlee's "work for prosperity" program has stood its stiffest test—the threat of a wholesale unofficial walkout in Coventry arising from wage and employment policy grievances that would have paralyzed Britain's leading automobile producers.

UNION LEADERS backed Mr. Attlee's stay-at-work program and most workers followed union advice.

The strike which originated with a dispute over employment policy in the big Humber motor works was called for yesterday by shop stewards in Coventry's 83 factories without sanction from their union leaders of the Amalgamated Engineering Union and the Transport and General Workers' Union.

Tuesday night's call to the workers by these unions to remain at their jobs had its effect—and yesterday union and company officials estimated not more than 3,000 men were out in 14 small factories apart from the 4,000 on strike at Humbers.

Action This Year

The city council is quite in order in asking the federal and provincial Governments and the University authorities provide the class-room space and living accommodation necessary for veteran students. The motion leaves it open to the three authorities to settle which should look after the job.

The bald situation is that unless more teaching space is supplied and living quarters as well, a large number of veterans will not be able to take up or complete the University courses they were promised. To make full use of the present facilities, dischargees are being enrolled in relays. And even under this arrangement the classes are over-crowded, while housing for more married students is almost a minus quantity.

The student veterans who will be able to enter their courses next September will have lost months in getting started. Those who have to wait longer will lose still more time. This is important, because meanwhile an intending student can take only temporary employment, and the temporary employee usually gets only beginner's wages.

Further, the longer a course is deferred or interrupted, the harder the going is bound to be. And—it is not to be forgotten—the veterans are not getting any younger. They naturally want to get through the qualifying period and settled at their life work as soon as possible.

What the city council proposes is therefore not something that can be put off without serious consequences. The extra class rooms and living quarters will be needed, urgently needed, when a new term opens—only six months from now. The time to supply these facilities is during the coming spring and summer months.

Buffer States

One shivering critic thinks Mr. Churchill's speech might give the Kremlin a strong argument "for surrounding herself with buffer states".

Hasn't the man a map, or has he been asleep for the last twelve months? What has Russia been doing ever since before the collapse of Germany but set up buffer states? There is a string of them now running all the way from the Baltic to the Adriatic. Another is being shaped in Manchuria, and still another in Iran.

Moscow doesn't need any "argument" to set up buffer states. It already has them strung clear across central Europe, and is busy creating more in other parts of the Middle Europe, including the Balkans, is now a Russian sphere of influence. Iran is being vivisected. Manchuria is still in the grip of the bear.

Whatever these facts may signify, they are known to all the world—perhaps excepting the critic in question. Moscow knows quite well that the world at large knows what it has done in Europe and is doing in Iran and Manchuria. It couldn't be fooled by pretended ignorance abroad and would have little respect for public men who did not say what they thought about the proceedings.

The gentlemen in the Kremlin are not neurotic, and they are not steering a course dictated by any over-regard for what outsiders may think or say. They know what they want and are taking the opportunity to get it.

The Fire Siren

In Edmonton, as elsewhere, law and tradition demand that moving vehicles pull to the kerb when the sound of sirens announce the approach of fire-fighting apparatus.

In Edmonton, as elsewhere, this rule is flagrantly flouted. Almost every time the fire trucks swing down some main artery of traffic, such as Jasper avenue, motor cars and trucks continue on their way indifferent to the urgency of the warning siren. Indeed, in many cases these vehicles not only fail to pull to the kerb but actually speed up and make a double lane of traffic ahead of the fire trucks in order to beat the latter to their destination.

This practice not only invites major traffic catastrophes, but appreciably slows up the fire-fighting equipment. It adds vital minutes to the time which must elapse between the ringing of an alarm and the arrival of the firemen. Each second's delay may add thousands of dollars to the property loss and may even increase the hazard in human life.

It should not be necessary to inflict fines and punishments to induce good citizens to observe this fundamental rule of the road when so much is at stake. But if motorists will not observe it on the basis of their own good sense, a brisk police drive is going to be necessary to make them observe it.

Fire-fighting equipment must have a full and uninterrupted right of way.

Neutral Spain

It is a reasonable principle, established by bitter experience, that any nation or group of nations has the right to interfere in the internal affairs of another nation when the nature of those internal affairs threaten to disrupt the peace of the world.

It is upon this principle, whose application in the middle 30's might have saved the world from the Nazi plague, that the United States, Britain and France are experimenting with an effort to bring about the downfall of the iniquitous Franco regime in Spain.

Washington has already espoused this principle, in issuing several weeks ago the "Blue Book" against the Argentine government.

There is an abundance of evidence that during the war Franco supported the Axis powers both by word and deed. His words of encouragement and support to Hitler and Mussolini, his seizure of Tangier, his mobilization of the Blue Division to fight with the Nazis against Russia—all these facts require no proof. His close collaboration with Hitler is revealed in a "White Paper" released recently by the United States state department.

Documents captured from the Germans show that in 1940 Franco proposed to seize Gibraltar, ship war materials exclusively to Germany and Italy, and subsequent to the receipt of supplies from the Axis place Spain "in the forefront of the struggle against the Allies".

This is all new evidence of the performance of "neutral" Spain.

Since the war, Franco's Spain has given shelter to scores of Axis politicians and businessmen, policemen and soldiers. He affords them refuge where they are plotting to keep the Nazi organization alive in hope that they can return to Germany and once more throw the world into turmoil.

Along with Argentina, Spain is today harboring some 50,000 Germans, 6,000 of them scientists, some of them engaged in atomic research. Nazi holdings in Spain approximate $200,000,000. The U.S. foreign economic administration has reported that much of Germany's war-making power is concentrated under Franco's protection.

These are the facts that Britain, France and the United States find disturbing. They are facts which justify such interference, for instance, as Washington's proposal that a caretaker government take over in Spain until such time as the Spanish people can democratically and without dictatorial domination vote for the kind of government they actually want.

Maybe it is time for the sports writers to start explaining to super-enthusiastic players and eggers-on in the bleachers that a hockey game isn't supposed to be fought out on the lines of the Battle of Stalingrad.

An organization called the American Farmers' Vigilante Committee threatens that its members will not sow any crops this spring unless the industrial strike epidemic is stopped by April 1st. If the committee had enough members this would almost certainly kill the plant-closing activity. Anybody would rather argue with the boss and eat than close down the works and go hungry. The farmers can do more than any other class in the community to compel industrial peace.

Members of the Alberta legislature backed a sound principle when they urged that ex-servicemen be given a priority on such war supply equipment which they want for their own use. Aside altogether from the fact that they were in uniform, these men have for years been deprived of the opportunity which civilians had to secure machinery and tools, because that was a government service. It is no more than fair to them, and in the interest of the country as well, that they be given first chance at surplus war equipment which they can use on farms or elsewhere in making a living and creating wealth.

Struggle for the World Oil Empire—

Behind the Scenes

Triangular Conflict to Win Human Allegiance Is in Progress Between Capitalism, Democracy and Communism in the Name of "The Common Man" Who "Fights All Wars and Dies for All Causes"

By Dorothy Thompson

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

Possibly by the time this column appears Mr. Pauley will have been given a testimonial regarding his "personal integrity." There will probably be the usual exchange of "Dear Ed," and "Dear Harry," for customary fare-saving.

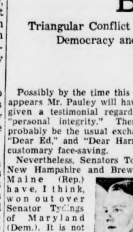

Nevertheless, Senators Tobey of New Hampshire and Brewster of Maine (Rep.) have I think won out over Senator Tydings of Maryland (Dem.). It is not to the advantage of the interest Mr. Pauley represents to continue the hearings. Mr. Pauley has failed, and they, like the president, will probably quietly drop him.

It is not only in despotic states that those who fail are liquidated by the forces whose faithful agents they have been. It is usually the agents, not the forces themselves, who take the rap.

SENATORS TOBEY and Brewster have done a fine job, but the credit does not go to the Republican party. There have been hidden Republican pressures on the side of Mr. Pauley as powerful as the open democratic pressures. Mr. Pauley represents a concept transcending and exploiting both parties—depending on which is in power. In this concept the state is an instrument, not of the people, but of the economic "empires" which, by planting fifth columns at key points within the state, can control its major policies. The empire represented by Mr. Pauley —with personal integrity, perhaps, within the framework of fidelity to this concept—is oil; specifically, it is Standard Oil of California. And oil is not merely an empire within the United States. It is a world-wide empire. Indeed, the greatest assets of Mr. Pauley's bosses lie outside American borders, in one of the politically most critical centres of the world—the sands of Saudi Arabia, where are buried incalculable petroleum riches, developed and undeveloped.

To make the defense of these riches a cardinal point of American foreign policy, is natural to the oil magnate's mentality. Hence, the desire—defeated after exposure—that the United States government should assume responsibility for laying and protecting 1,250 miles of pipeline across half a dozen countries, the consent of whose sheiks should be purchased by American

HENCE THE CONCEPT of the primacy of responsibility of the American navy and other armed forces to defend the overseas oil empire against, for instance, the Soviet Union, whose state capitalism is no less greedy for oil than is private capitalism. A reliable assistant secretary of the navy to succeed the present secretary and possibly, then, to work for an army-navy merger under his leadership—what ings. Mr. Pauley has failed, and they, like the president, will probably quietly drop him.

Hence, the desire—defeated after exposure—that the United States government should assume responsibility for laying and protecting 1,250 miles of pipeline across half a dozen countries, the consent of whose sheiks should be purchased by American agreement to maintain the backward political status quo. Hence the letter, to Ibn Saud, "Great and Good Friend", dashing the hopes of and promises to the Palestinian Jews.

HENCE THE CONCEPT of the primacy of responsibility of the American navy and other armed forces to defend the overseas oil empire against, for instance, the Soviet Union, whose state capitalism is no less greedy for oil than is private capitalism. A reliable assistant secretary of the navy to succeed the present secretary and possibly, then, to work for an army-navy merger under his leadership—what could be more reassurance for this concept? The navy plus oil! What could not be justified from that combination! For oil is the food of ships, and who would deny the navy its sustenance?

The stakes in the Pauley case have been much higher than Tidelands Oil, or Elk Hills naval reserves. They involve such questions as the Atlantic Charter's pledge of "equal access to raw materials."

There is a great moral struggle on, involving the lives, human rights, and standards of living of millions of the "common man" who fights all wars, dies for all causes, and in whose name all wars and causes are fought. The struggle is three-way, between despotic capitalism, subverting and suborning the democratic state; democracy, embracing perhaps forms and degrees of socialism and capitalism, but always upholding the integrity of popular government, and despotic communism.

PRECISELY BECAUSE the struggle for the allegiances of mankind is so epochal must democracy keep clean her hands. The other way lies war, revolution and defeat.

The withdrawal of Mr. Pauley will not answer the question: What should American foreign policy protect—America, and with her humanity and law, or powerful private interests? Mr. Ickes, for all his attacks on Mr. Pauley, would do well to review his own past oil policies in the foreign field.

There is oil enough for all peoples in Arabia alone. There is oil to maintain tenth-century despots in Wahabistan and the Balkans. What could not be justified from Oriental grandeur, or help lift millions from ignorance, disease, and want. There is oil for co-operation or for greed.

Senators Tobey and Brewster, conservatives, have fought to maintain the sovereignty of the American republic over its foreign policy, and over internal pressures. They are therefore true "Republicans."

They have been supported by some oil men. It is not true that all capitalists put private interests above the nation, or see the two as synonymous, or that the confusion of national interest and self-interest is a monopoly of any class.

But the matter is not settled by the withdrawal of Mr. Pauley. Pauleys come and go. They are not the players, but only castles, kings, or pawns in the great power game.

Mr. Justice Ives on Labor and Law—

Disputes and Production

Former Member of Alberta Supreme Court Bench Suggests Labor Code to Protect Public From Consequences of Labor-Management Altercations

The following letter by Hon. W. C. Ives, formerly a judge of the Supreme Court of Alberta, appeared the other day in The Ottawa Journal.

I have some diffidence in offering in this letter opinions about our economic Canadian life and I hope sincerely that you will in your wisdom criticize this letter to the extent that criticism may be justified.

May I say that as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the Province of Alberta for thirty years, I feel that my observation in that experience may be helpful to the Canadian economy and it is only from the point of view of such observation that I offer the suggestion contained in this letter.

I have administered the Criminal Code of Canada; the Bankruptcy Act of Canada; all other nation-wide Acts of Canada for thirty years. In all that time I have not heard any criticism of my administration of the law in those spheres of social activity.

In 1939 you will remember, as the Royal Public remembers when our gracious Queen during her visit to Canada laid the cornerstone of the Supreme Court Building in Ottawa, she aptly said "This nation is determined to live by the rule of law."

Will you tell me why the vital immediate questions of labor relations should not be governed by a rule of law?

Is there an argument against a code of labor relations in Canada, whereby the public weal may be paramount as it should be?

Will you tell me why labor disputes should not be dealt with by the courts of the different provinces in the same impartial way that all other disputes are dealt with?

Why is it necessary, in order to change or adjust relations of labor and employer, that there should be strikes to settle a dispute? In the last analysis a strike is nothing more than blackmail, which we will not permit under our rule of law.

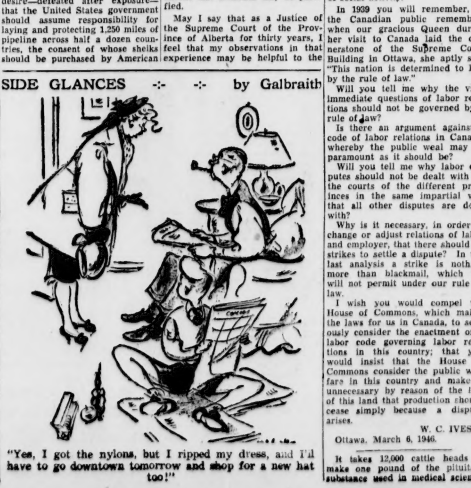

I wish you would compel the House of Commons, which makes the laws for us in Canada, to seriously consider the enactment of a labor code governing labor relations in this country; that you would insist that the House of Commons consider the public welfare in this country and make it unnecessary by reason of the law of this land that production should cease simply because a dispute arises.

Disregarding the Real Issues—

Today in Europe

New Type of United States Isolationists Hammer Comparatively Harmless Don Quixotes in World Affairs While Ignoring More Dangerous Portents

By Randolph Churchill

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

NEW YORK—In addition to rambunctious isolationists who glory in their hatred of foreign countries, there is emerging today in the United States a new type whose isolationism is based on timidity. Many of this breed can be found in the State department. Their policy was recently well described by Congressman Clare Boothe Luce as that of the three monkeys — "See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil".

CHURCHILL

Many of these timid isolationists are high-minded and idealistic in their approach to foreign policy. But they are very adept in finding high-sounding excuses for avoiding decisions or positive action.

THEY ARE ALSO adroit in the manipulation of red herrings; and in order to avoid facing the real dangers that confront the world, they love to make scapegoats out of small fry. An example of this latter tendency is shown by the vehemence with which they attack little tin-pot dictators like General Issimo Franco of Spain and Colonel Juan Peron of Argentina as a substitute for devising any effective policy to resist the territorial encroachments of Soviet Russia and the fifth-column activities of international Communism.

UNO has proved a godsend to these timid gentry. In the past they used to argue against any proposed course of action on the grounds that it might upset the Russians. Now they are beginning to add that it would also sabotage UNO.

Thus, some members of the Senate have gone so far as to say that Winston Churchill's recent proposal of a "fraternal association of the British and American peoples" would "cut the throat of UNO," by the language, not the statesmanship of hysteria.

If the twenty-year treaty of mutual defence between Britain and Soviet Russia does not alarm the United States nor "cut the throat of UNO," why should a "fraternal association" of the English-speaking peoples produce such dire effects in Moscow and in the UNO?

ARTICLE 52 of UNO's charter specifically provides for "regional arrangements" for maintenance of international peace. This clause was inserted at the desire of Russia in order to bring their very tight treaty arrangements with Poland, Czechoslovakia and the Balkan countries into at least technical harmony with the spirit and charter of UNO.

It might, of course, be objected that the "region" covered by the British Commonwealth and Empire and the United States is a very large "region." So it is, but it is smaller than the "region" covered by the British Commonwealth and Empire and the Soviet Union, who have a formal treaty of alliance, plus all shameless humbug. It is dished up as a form of "escapism" by those who wish to avoid their international responsibilities and obligations.

It is the current fad to make out that the policy of appeasement that culminated at Munich was the work of Neville Chamberlain and a few wicked Tories. It is always forgotten that more than half the British Labor party was riddled with pacifism at that time and that they warmly endorsed the Munich settlement.

And I wonder how many Americans today remember that President Roosevelt, that stalwart champion of democracy, sent a telegram to Mussolini congratulating him on the statesmanship he had shown in bringing about the meeting of the four powers at Munich?

THIS IS WHERE we came in. The same forces of appeasement which caused the last war are already at work again, camouflaged by timidity under the banners of idealism and world co-operation.

It has been said that the League of Nations failed because the State of the United States repudiated their President's signature to the Versailles Treaty. It would indeed be a tragedy if the new attempt to build a world organization were to fail because the United States joined UNO only to paralize and hamstring it "through craven fear of being great."

PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER

But the worst habit of all is the habit of keeping borrowed books over again the public library creates habits which are inimical to the private library. Family Units

Editor, Bulletin: Family units are the basic components of the state. The increase and expansion of family units necessitates the expansion of the state boundaries, by war if necessary. Should the state not expand, the inevitable death of family units by famine and disease, or by banditry and civil war inevitably result, i.e., India and China.

The self preservation principles of man can be best served by religious ideas of co-operation between men of good faith.

Tip to Our Girls

Editor, Bulletin: Why all the whining about the English war brides? Perhaps if the Canadian girl would inform herself in the culinary and domestic arts and be willing to settle down to home life she, too, could have a husband. Personality and prettiness don't know are either married or engaged, many of them as a result of war romance. They aren't the gadabout painted babies, either. They're hard-working, practical, economical girls who will settle down to a home and children, and they are plenty good looking, too. They brush their hair, use makeup in moderation and apply their own nail polish.

So, come on, you wishing belles, get up to the qualifications; not every serviceman brought back a wife, and some are still looking for a satisfactory one. And to the foreign wives, a hearty Canadian welcome to this great country of ours.

Matter of Profits

Editor, Bulletin: Recently you published a letter from an old age pensioner in which he pleads for no increase in wages, as this would automatically step up the prices of commodities. Is not this the error so many make, that this is simply a two-way problem, when in reality it is a three-way one, a big angle being profits? Did not President Truman cover this when he said that industry could increase wages liberally and still make a good profit?

Another correspondent writes that the prices of jellies and jams should not have been increased by 4c on March 1. This was explained by the fact, previously stated in The Bulletin, that the subsidy on this product is now withdrawn. Oh, that there had been a ceiling placed on houses. We might not now be suffering from inflation in that very important field. Yours for better understanding.

Spanish Freedom

Editor Bulletin: A few days ago you expressed the opinion that if the Spanish people desire to become free they must do that freeing themselves; and you added that only one who has conquered freedom by his own effort can fully appreciate it.

It is well for us, who live in Canada and have never known the state of slavery, to think and speak along such lines. But if you knew both the condition that has been that of Belgium for four and half years and its present state of mind, as well as I know them who have lived literally next door, you would likely change your opinion.

First: Why did we not say to the Belgians: If you want to be free again, it is up to you to free yourselves? The same Hitler and Mussolini who overran the nations of Europe are those who conquered Spain. If the Allied Nations freed Czechoslovakia, Poland, Greece, Holland, Belgium and France, why should they not also free Spain of Hitler and Mussolini's puppet and general successor as a fomentor of world war?

Secondly: Do you think that the inhabitants of the above named countries appreciate liberty less because some other nations rescued them from the yoke under the two men of prey? Let us, however, admit that they appreciate it less than if they had freed themselves by their own effort. But would they ever have been able to free themselves? And will the Spanish people ever be able to free themselves by their own efforts? Therefore are we going to stand stock-still around the nest of serpents where the actors of a future world war are being nurtured?

Veterans' Guard Members Heard In POW Trial

MEDICINE HAT, March 14.—(CP)—Members of the Veterans Guard of Canada still in uniform and others now discharged testified yesterday when the trial of Pte. Adolf Kratz, 34 one of three German prisoners of war charged with the murder of a fellow-prisoner, August Plasrek, 42, in Medicine Hat internment camp July 22, 1943, resumed after a two-day adjournment.

THE FIRST OF TWO prisoners charged with Kratz, Sgt. Werner Schwalb, 30, was sentenced last week by Chief Justice W. R. Howson of Alberta Supreme Court to be hanged at Lethbridge June 26 for his part in the crime.

The second, L-Cpl. Johannes Wittinger, 30, will face trial when the case against Kratz is concluded.

Pte. Knud Nielsen, VGC, a scout, testified yesterday he was one of those who had accompanied the camp leader, SSM. Richard Elstermann, into the west recreation hall of the camp on the day Plasrek was found hanging.

NIELSEN SAID he had seen two large spots of blood on the cement floor of the hall and a body lying on the floor with a rope wound tightly around the neck. Every indication pointed to the fact the man had been hanged.

Five other VGC witnesses described the crowd which gathered in the camp at the time Christian Shulz, one of a group of prisoners suspected of plotting to overthrow the camp leadership, fled into the protective custody of Canadian guards after being questioned by Elstermann and Lieut. Hans Schanorrenpfeil, camp legal adviser.

Sgt. James Brown, asked by Chief Justice Howson if the Germans had learned to swear in English since coming to Canada, replied:

"If I may say so, my lord, I would say they learned it long before they came to Canada".

Truman Loaf

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson tastes first test loaf of the new "grey" bread in Washington. It contains only 80 per cent. white wheat flour and was ordered by President Truman to conserve vital grain for feeding undernourished peoples of Europe. Bread officially is ecru in color—or slightly off-ivory. How's it taste? "Delicious," said Anderson—with considerable gusto.

MEASLES

In today's article I shall answer some of the questions most commonly asked about measles.

"Is measles a 'catching' disease?"

Measles is a contagious disorder and will usually develop in the majority of children past the age of 6 months, who are exposed to it, providing they have not already had the disease.

"How long does it take after a child is exposed to measles for him to come down with it?"

Most of the cases come on about 12 days after exposure. The incubation period varies between 9 and 21 days.

"How does measles start?"

The first symptoms are very much the same as those of a cold. The child has a "running nose, is feverish and may sneeze. About a day after these symptoms, a cough generally appears.

"When does the rash come out?"

The rash of measles generally appears sometime during the fourth day. Starting on the face, it gradually spreads. The fever commonly reaches its highest point on the second day after the eruption and then begins to go down, with a return to normal temperature between the seventh and ninth day of the disease. The rash itself is formed of small red dots—but the eruption may run together and present a patchy look. The rash ordinarily takes a day and a half to reach its height, then stays for two days, and fades.

What are Koplik's spots?"

These spots are characteristic of measles and may appear as early as the first day. They are seen inside of the mouth and on the inner surfaces of the lips. The spots themselves are very small bluish white dots with a bright red ring around them. They are best seen by directing a light so it will shine into the mouth.

"Should the child with measles be in bed?"

"Yes, the child with a light case may want to be up and around but as a general rule the patient with measles is better off in bed.

"Is it necessary to protect the eyes?"

The eyes should be protected by keeping the child in a darkened room. Bright light should be kept away from the eyes and the patient should not be allowed to do much reading or writing until he has recovered.

"Why is the serum treatment used for measles?"

The object is to modify the attack so that the patient will have a lighter attack than would otherwise be the case. Those advocating this treatment feel that the child is better off through having a lighter attack.

"Can the same person have measles twice?"

One attack confers immunity as a general rule.

"Should the child with measles play with others?"

It is better to keep the child by himself for at least 14 days, and is safest to isolate him for 20 days.

All questions regarding health and diet will be answered. Large stamped, self-addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of the paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address McCoy Health Service, The McCoy Building, 1151 West 6th Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

War Writers' Aide Given Army Award

OLDENBURG, Germany, March 14.—(CP)—Gunner Albert Braaten of Wadena, Sask., "Man Friday" for almost every war correspondent with the 1st Canadian Army on the western front, has been mentioned in dispatches, army routine orders said yesterday.

Braaten received the mention for the job he did as special orderly with the Canadian Public Relations unit looking after correspondents in camps from Caen to Berlin.

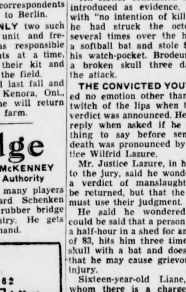

THERE WERE ONLY two such orderlies with the unit and frequently Braaten was responsible for 20 correspondents at a time, helping them with their kit and the job of living in the field.

He was repatriated last fall and now is working at Kenora, Ont., until spring when he will return to his Saskatchewan farm.

Bridge

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority

There are a great many players who consider Howard Schenken one of the greatest rubber bridge players in the country. He gets every trick out of a hand.

Schenken played today's hand at four spades doubled.

West opened the nine of diamonds, Schenken won with the ace and cashed the king, discarding a heart from dummy. Then he led the jack of diamonds, West ruffed with the deuce of spades and dummy over-ruffed with the three.

The jack of hearts was led, West won with the king and returned a heart. East winning with the ace. The third heart was won by Schenken with the ten-spot. The club finesse was taken, the ace of clubs cashed and the six of clubs ruffed with the seven of spades.

Now you can see that West was helpless. When Schenken led the eight of hearts, West had four spades to the king-ten, while Schenken had the ace-queen-eight West could make only one trick.

British Air Taxi Begins Operation

LONDON, March 14.—(Reuters)—Britain's first post-war "air taxi" flight to Eire took place yesterday, when a two-seater Auster flew a business man from near London across the Irish channel. The service, "from door-to-door" with cars provided to take the passenger from his home to the airdrome, Charge varies between about 25 and 30 cents a mile according to airline distance.

Montreal Citizens Seeking Vice Probe

MONTREAL, March 14.—(CP)—Some 8,000 Montreal citizens have signed a petition for a judicial probe into alleged vice and corruption here, it was announced last night. The Leagues of the Sacred Heart and the Citizens' Civilance League, are campaigning for 25,000 signatures on the petition, to be presented in April to Chief Justice W. L. Bond. A first petition was rejected on the grounds it was not sufficiently specific.

Youth Must Hang For Cudgel Murder

MONTREAL, March 14—(CP)—Ezgel Harris, 19, was yesterday sentenced to be hanged June 21 for the murder of 83-year-old Alderic Brodeur, with whose granddaughter, Liane Labelle, he was keeping company, in a shed at the old man's north-end home last November. A court of King's bench jury took only 10 minutes to convict the pale-faced, blond youth.

An earlier confession by Harris, introduced as evidence, said that with "no intention of killing him," he had struck the octogenarian several times over the head with a softball bat and stole $140 from his watch-pocket. Brodeur died of a broken skull three days after the attack.

THE CONVICTED YOUTH showed no emotion other than a slight twitch of the lips when the jury's verdict was announced. He made no reply when asked if he had anything to say before sentence of death was pronounced by Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure.

Mr. Justice Lazure, in his charge to the jury, said he wondered how a verdict of manslaughter could be returned, but that the jurymen must use their judgment.

He said he wondered how it could be said that a person waits for a half-hour in a shed for an old man of 83, hits him three times on the skull with a bat and doesn't know that he may cause grievous bodily injury.

Sixteen-year-old Liane, against whom there is a charge of conspiracy to commit robbery in connection with the same case, refused to give evidence against her sweetheart at his trial.

Troops to Leave Germany Next Week

AURICH, Germany, March 14.—(CP)—The first contingent of the Canadian Army occupation force is expected to start pulling out of the Canadian sector of northwest Germany March 22 en route to England for repatriation to Canada.

The initial force to leave will be the 7th Brigade Group of about 3,500 troops. The group includes the occupation battalions of the Royal Winnipeg Rifles, the Regina Rifles and the Queen's Own Rifles, of Toronto.

ALDERSHOT REPATRIATION camps will be used by the troops until they move to ports for the trip home to Canada.

The 7th Brigade Group will be followed by the 8th and 9th Brigade Groups in that order and while it is officially announced that it is expected to take four months to move the CAOF from Europe, some authorities forecast the move may be completed by early June.

Manitoba Plans Record Spending

WINNIPEG, March 14.—(CP)—Details of the largest provincial government expenditures in Manitoba's history were tabled in the legislature yesterday by Premier Garson. The house will be asked to vote $19,979,225 for the next fiscal year's operation of provincial business, an increase of $1,230,725 over the amount voted last session. However, the increase is offset more than one-third by reduction of public debt charges and the actual net increase in estimates is $810,963.

Plowing Started In South Alberta

WINNIPEG, Man., March 14.—Spring plowing and surface cultivation are under way at Barnwell, Alberta, but have not become general as yet in that district, according to a telegram received from the company's agent there by the Canadian Pacific Railway's agricultural department. Barnwell, 26 miles east of Lethbridge on the Canadian Pacific's Taber sub-division, was also the first point on the prairies to report the start of spring cultivation last year, reporting the beginning of operations on March 27. It was not until early in April, 1944, that operations got under way in that part of southern Alberta.

When Donna Reed, Bataan nurse in "They Were Expendable," was a farm girl in Iowa, a High school teacher helped her overcome her self-conscious awkwardness. She went on to become a movie star and, corresponding with her former teacher, finally learned he was an atomic scientist. She arranged his meeting with M-G-M officials, leading to the forthcoming picture, "The Beginning or The End."

Designs Globe That May Resist Atom Explosion

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 14—(CP)—Jean Lussier of Niagara Falls, N.Y., who designed a rubber ball which carried him safely over the Horseshoe Falls here in 1928, has a new one which he says can withstand the blast of the atomic bomb.

But Lussier won't be inside the new-type sphere if the United States Navy allows him to test it when an atomic bomb demonstration is staged in the Pacific ocean next July. He plans to house rabbits in the lead-lined interior.

He said he hoped to prove with the ball that homes and other buildings could be made with the same materials and design to provide protection against the atomic bomb.

Debunker

It is commonly asserted that the Treaty of Versailles terminated hostile relations between all the warring powers engaged in the 1914-18 World War. The truth is that this treaty concluded the war only for Germany and the Allies when it was signed on June 28, 1919. Peace between Austria and the Allies was signed September 10, 1919; between Bulgaria and the Allies on November 27, 1919; between Hungary and the Allies on June 4, 1920; between Turkey and the Allies on August 10, 1920, and between the United States and the Central Powers (Germany, Austria and Hungary) on August 25, 1921—nearly three years after the Armistice was signed.

Wait Red Move To Clear Up Iran Problem

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, March 14—(AP)—The next move in the diplomatic tangle over Russian military moves in Iran appeared today to be up to Moscow with American officials hoping for word from the Soviet capital which might ease the critical situation.

THE SITUATION is considered by some authorities to be so serious as possibly to threaten the effectiveness of United Nations peace machinery unless there is a break fairly soon.

A demand at its meeting in New York late this month that the security council take some action to get Soviet forces out of Iran is considered probable.

It might confront that peace agency with a life-and-death test of its powers.

The state department awaited an answer to its note to Russia requesting information on reports that Soviet troops have been moving deeper into Iran instead of getting out as they were supposed to do March 2. Meantime there were these other developments:

1. State Secretary Byrnes spent 15 minutes in conference with President Truman, presumably reviewing the state of American-Russian relations and considering what steps may be taken.

2. Representative John Taber (Rep.—N.Y.) told the house the United States is still sending "substantial shipments" of lend-lease materials to Russia and suggested this post-war lend-lease be used as a means of advancing American policies. Russia had received a total of $100,000,000 worth of supplies through Jan. 31, he said, of a total of $290,000,000 approved by the United States in post-war tapering-off of lend-lease.

(THE STATE DEPARTMENT later explained the Russians are obtaining a total of $290,000,000 of goods and services, on a credit basis. Under an agreement made when wartime lend-lease was terminated, the goods are to be paid for in 22 annual instalments beginning July 1, 1954. The credit carries an interest rate of 2¾ per cent beginning July 1, 1947).

3. Representative Jennings Randolph (Dem.—W. Va.) said in another house speech that on a Latin American tour he learned that a Moscow-directed communist propaganda organization has been set up in Central America to act as "a springboard" for spreading communist doctrines in the United States.

4. Ambassador Hussein Ala of Iran conferred with Loy Henderson, chief of the state department's office of Middle East affairs, and told reporters the situation in Iran no longer amounts simply to a "war of nerves." He said the latest Russian move had taken the Iranians "by surprise."

5. W. Averell Harriman, former ambassador to Russia, spent more than an hour talking with the senate foreign relations committee Chairman Tom Connally (Dem.-Tex.) said he had given a report on relations with the Soviet Union.

6. Considerable interest was shown by diplomatic officials in Premier Stalin's blast at Winston Churchill, as reported by the Moscow radio. The fact Gen. Stalin personally made the attack on Mr. Churchill was viewed here as evidence of the weight which the Russians give to Mr. Churchill's criticisms of them in his recent speech at Fulton, Mo.

Plan 160-Foot Dam On Red Deer River

REGINA, March 14—(CP)—Construction of a 160-foot dam at a bend of the Red Deer river, west of Stettler, Alta., with a canal leading from that point eastward past Buffalo Lake and down to Castor and Coronation, is proposed by the East Central Irrigation Association of Alberta, said association secretary Cyril A. Coughlin in Regina yesterday.

The project would view water more than 478,000 acres of land in east central Alberta, found by engineers to be suitable for irrigation. Engineering estimates place the cost at $6,750,000, and it is considered it will provide employment for 1,500 men for about 18 months.

Edmonton Again Out-Skates Moose Jaw in Last Period for 7-6 Victory

Canadians Go Two Up in West Junior Semi-Final

Three Points

Doug Anderson, hard-working pivot who last night was performing between Harry Groves and Leo Lucchini, turned in a sparkling performance as Canadians knocked over Moose Jaw and was the top point-getter of the night with three. He drove home two first-period counters and then assisted on another by Groves in the third. Doug has been one of the most steady players of the series for the Edmonton juniors so far.

Groves and D. Anderson Net 2 Each

By DON KILLIPS

The Edmonton Canadians' chances of reaching the western Canada and possibly the dominion junior hockey finals were given another stiff ahot in the arm Wednesday night when the home club turned back Moose Jaw Canucks 7-6 at the Arena to take a two-game lead in the best-of-seven Saskatchewan-Alberta playoff.

It was an impressive win despite the fact the Canadians only finished up one goal ahead in what was a "crowd thriller" all the way for the 5,600 paid fans, although the hockey was spotty at times—especially in the second canto.

Taking the first two home games—they won the initial on Monday 7-4—set the Canadians in an excellent spot to eliminate the Moose Jaw club, which proved too strong for these same Canadians one year ago.

The teams now move to Moose Jaw for the next two games on Saturday and Monday and if Canadians are unable to finish the series up in four straight, the remaining encounters will be played at Regina.

Canadians turned in a far better performance than they did in the series opener and were out-skating the visitors in the first and third periods, outscoring them on both occasions.

THE THOMAS LINE, with Cy on left wing and Eddie on right with John Rypien in centre, again carried a heavy load for Earl Robertson's charges, accounting for two goals, but the other trio of Dougie Anderson, Harry Groves and Leo Luchini was really effective going both ways.

Anderson, who has been playing beautiful hockey in the series so far, was again very effective and in the Canadians' first two markers while Groves turned in a far better performance last night to get two important markers, his second putting Canadians ahead for the final time in the third period. Gadsby drove in the other Edmonton marker.

For the visitors Metro Prystal, Leo Butler, Ken Lovett and Bert Olmstead provided most of the punch, but Emile Francis, smart netminder, carried the heaviest load for Eddie Wiseman's sextet, holding off the Canadians almost single-handed at times.

A LOT OF THE FANS hadn't gotten into their seats when the Canucks jumped into a 1-0 lead, Lovett drilling one from out-side the blueline at 55 seconds that baffled John Sofiak.

It didn't take the Canadians loag to get back on even footing and at 4:07, Anderson took a pass from

Harry Groves, fast skating winger for Canadians, last night drilled in two smart goals in the third period when Edmonton overcame Moose Jaw Canucks to take the second game in the western junior hockey semi-final. His second marker put the locals ahead to stay.

Luchini from the blueline and outguessed Francis.

Both teams carried on a real battle after that with both goaltenders having more than a couple of anxious moments and shortly after the period passed the half-way mark, Wilbur Printz made it 2-1 for Canucks when Sofiak let a dribbling puck roll past him.

Less than two minutes afterwards Doug Anderson came up with a smart piece of work to deadlock the count again. He overskated the puck in the Moose Jaw zone when he was going in fast, but turned around to regain possession and stick-handle his way in close and slipped the rubber into the Canuck cage.

CANUCKS THEN applied the pressure and Eddie Thomas got away on a breakaway just 41 seconds after Anderson tied it up, to put Canadians up 3-2.

The frame ended that way and in the second the Canadians lagged a bit compared to the pace they set in the first and the Moose Jaw gang came roaring down for two markers, the only ones of the frame, to move back into the drivers' seat with a 4-3 lead.

Lovett drilled one from just Inside the blue-line that was deflected off Ron Mathews' stick into the net to make it 3-3 before the match session was half a minute old and then Olmstead checked Mathews at the blueline when the Edmonton defence let up, to put Moose Jaw ahead. Olmstead had a clear route from the blueline right to the Edmonton goal and went tearing in to drill one through Sofiak's legs.

THAT LEFT THE Canadians facing a one-goal deficit entering the final stretch. They opened up right from the start of the third, Harry Groves back-handed a passout from the corner by Anderson, who had circled the Moose Jaw net at 3:15 and then a couple of minutes later Rypien got his stick on a relay from Cy and Eddie Thomas right in front to out-wit Francis and set Edmonton on top of a 5-4 count.

A penalty to Bill Pettinger for tripping about midway in the frame was costly, the Canucks cunning back to tie it up when Butler banged a pass from Prystal through a mass of players in front of the Edmonton cage to make it 5-5 with only half a period remaining.

CANADIANS MOVED out front again when Groves finished off one of their best efforts of the night. The winners were putting on the pressure and Anderson gained possession in the corner. Doug passed back to Matthews at the blueline and when the Canuck team moved towards his side of the ice, he relayed over to Bill Gadsby on the opposite side who was then in the clear. Bill skated in a ways and then landed one smack on Groves' stick in front. Groves turned around in front of the net to back-hand it into the open side.

That put the Canadians out in front and then a minute and five seconds later, at 15:22, Gadsby cinched the issue when he rifled home a pass right in front from Pettinger. Pettinger picked up the rubber at the centre ice line and started down with only one player back. Pettinger drew the Moose Jaw defencemen to the side and passed over to Gadsby who had a clear shot.

MOOSE JAW PRESSED after that and aside from Prystal's marker just 32 seconds afterwards, Holmes rapped in another goal at 2.20 in the middle session and Colin Kilburn flipped in another at 6.41 with Dahl off, also on a hooking penalty. Benny Klingspoon raised the count to 5-1, slapping in Kilburn's rebound 23 seconds later.

Kilburn and Holmes were both serving penalties when "Curly" Hunt scored for Currie with the help of "Whitey" Rimstad and Jack Quigley, but Kilburn rapped in another after Dawe had carried the puck through the Army defence at 15:08.

HUNT COUNTED again with 10 seconds left. Rimstad and Quigley again securing assists, to leave the score 6-3 at the breather.

Bob Graham tallied the only goal of the final period, taking his time to shift Goalie Ken Stewart before banging in the rubber on Dawe's pass. Jim Fleming, who was very effective on defence all evening came close to scoring with seconds remaining. All-Stars even out-shot Army eight to three in the final chapter.

Riley Mullen and his Flyers were amongst the contingent boosting for the Edmonton intermediates.

Rinkside Ramblings

By JACK DeLONG

Two up and two to go was the chant of Edmonton's speedy junior Canadians in the dressing room after the battle last night.

It's a good trick if they can do it and what's more those perky youngsters coached by Earl Robertson feel they can make the series a grand slam.

Although Canadians did it the hard way again last night, largely because of a trio of free offering counters they served up Moose Jaw early in the contest, they have proved themselves, man, for man, a speedier crew than their Saskatchewan visitors.

Only goaltending that bordered on the miraculous kept Canucks in the running over the whole route. This kid Francis is just about the smoothest stopper of flying pucks seen in junior circles since "Sugar" Jim Henry performed in prairieland rinks.

Coach Robertson used to be a mighty cool customer when he performed as a goalie in professional company. As a coach he's good but good and excited too. When Canadians pulled out in front in that dizzy third period we could hardly pick "Robbie" out of the mob of delirious fans along the Arena west wall.

Canadians board the rattler for Moose Jaw tonight for the third clash of the best-of-seven series in the Saskatchewan milling centre Saturday night. About five or six thousand Edmontonian wish they could go too.

Eddie Thomas was the back-checking star of Wednesday's game. Eddie nearly met himself going back three or four times. But just to prove he's a mighty handy guy at other hockey chores he scored one goal that fairly glittered and gave a helping hand, along with brother Cy, to set Johnny Rypien up for another swell counter.

All the other Edmonton goals were humdingers.

Bill Gadsby proved himself a converter extraordinary of those passes to the goalmouth. How he shook free from those frantic Moose Jaw defenders to turn the trick was mystifying but also satisfying to the depths.

Johnny Sofiak turned in a nice game between the uprights for Canadians, too, and couldn't be blamed one little bit for three of the counters that slipped by him. Two were the result of momentary attacks of paralysis by his defence while a third was a perfect deflection from the stick of a team-mate.

What's come over some Edmonton fans? When Canadians were shorthanded through penalties they often did the only sensible thing to do to relieve the pressure. They shot the puck up the ice to kill off the penalty. Such action never failed to bring a much too audible chorus of boos.

What do the boxers think the kids ought to do? Stage a series of power p'ays when they're shorthanded? It just don't make sense.

The ice was faster than it has been for some time. Nice work Mr. Stan Stevens.

Edmonton Independents Win First of Provincial Finals

By HAL DEAN
Sports Editor, Edmonton Bulletin

CALGARY, March 14.—Edmonton's Independent All-Stars took a four-goal lead in the Alberta Intermediate final when they defeated Currie Barracks 7-3 in the first of the two-game total goal series at Victoria arena here Wednesday night.

The second will be played in Edmonton on Friday.

Independents out-skated and out-played the Army pucksters for two periods of the game and never looked back after securing the lead late in the opening period. Persistent back-checking had the Calgarians worried all evening. Ken Cox and Russ Kiesko, injured during the second period did not appear on the ice in the final session, but it was reported after the game they would be ready to go on Friday.

CECIL ALEXANDER'S goal at 6.31 gave the Army club a temporary edge in the first period, but an Independent offensive paid off four minutes later. Louis Holmes finally netting unassisted. The Northern club went out in front on Bob David's goal on a three-way drive with Holmes and Kiesko with less than two minutes remaining and were never headed from there on.

With Haire off for hooking Holmes rapped in another goal at 2.20 in the middle session and Colin Kilburn flipped in another at 6.41 with Dahl off, also on a hooking penalty. Benny Klingspoon raised the count to 5-1, slapping in Kilburn's rebound 23 seconds later.

Kilburn and Holmes were both serving penalties when "Curly" Hunt scored for Currie with the help of "Whitey" Rimstad and Jack Quigley, but Kilburn rapped in another after Dawe had carried the puck through the Army defence at 15:08.

HUNT COUNTED again with 10 seconds left. Rimstad and Quigley again securing assists, to leave the score 6-3 at the breather.

Bob Graham tallied the only goal of the final period, taking his time to shift Goalie Ken Stewart before banging in the rubber on Dawe's pass. Jim Fleming, who was very effective on defence all evening came close to scoring with seconds remaining. All-Stars even out-shot Army eight to three in the final chapter.

Riley Mullen and his Flyers were amongst the contingent boosting for the Edmonton intermediates.

Winnipeg Evens West Semi-Final At Prince Albert

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask, March 14—(CP)—Winnipeg Jack Kings broke from behind in a stirring final 10 minutes to defeat Prince Albert Regents 6-4 here last night and even their western intermediate hockey best-of-three semi-final series at a game apiece.

Regents won the first game 8-4. Final game of the series will be played here tonight, following which the winner will move on to the west coast to meet the Alberta-British Columbia victor in the western final.

Gordie Kerr came through to score Winnipeg's first tally in the opening session and led the Manitobans to victory by setting up four other goals.

Les Hickey got two for the visitors while Paul Kornek, Harry Deleeuw and Stan Petrow got the others.

Andie Hyrn was top scorer for Prince Albert with a pair of counters and Tony Merkowsky and Ernie Primeau chalked up one each.

The game was tied 3-3 going into the final stanza and at 2:15 Hyrn garnered his second goal to put the Saskatchewan champions ahead.

Winnipeg turned on the power just past the 10-minute mark when Kerr set up Kornek to tie the score again. Then Hickey came through with his two efforts on passes from Kerr and Petrow to put the game away.

The Canadians were able to hold them off.

A thrilling exhibition of hockey for the large crowd was topped off when Eddie Thomas and Cecil Allen tangled with about half a minute remaining. Both received majors.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW

By Don Killips

THERE was joy to burn in the Canadians' dressing room after they had slapped Moose Jaw Canucks with the second straight setback in the western junior semi-finals last night. The boys were all tired out after those three periods of strenuous hockey, but there wasn't a single player who wasn't glowing with a broad smile.

When the homesters took the opener last Monday they figured "that was the big one." Then came the second victory and along with it real confidence that they will polish off the Canucks in grand style.

There was no over-confidence around, but the odds in their favor certainly took another big jump. That's a sure thing.

THERE WASN'T ANY prediction being made either in the joyful dressing room on Canadians taking the series four straight by stopping Moose Jaw on their home ice. How much stronger they will be before a home-town crowd can't be said from this distance, but it's a sure thing they will be a tot tougher.

Coach Earl Robertson wasn't making any undue remarks about what his young puck-chasers would do on strange ice, but his hopes, too, became higher after last night.

"WE'LL TAKE THEM one at a time," said the cool-minded skipper, "that's all we're worrying about at the present."

There was little happiness in the Canuck dressing room as the boys donned their street clothes and prepared to leave for Moose Jaw last night, but the gloom wasn't as thick as when they dropped the opener Monday night.

Eddie Wiseman, coach of the Saskatchewan champs, wasn't making any comment on either last night's contest or what he figured his squad could do in the next two games. "It will be different in Moose Jaw," was all the former NHL star would say.

ON THEIR SHOWING last night, when they played a far better game than on Monday, Canadians should be given a better than average chance of winning at Moose Jaw.

They were out-skating the Canucks in both the first and second periods and showed great determination throughout the whole game. Getting a couple of soft goals scored against some teams would take a great deal of punch out of some clubs, but it seems to be just the opposite with Edmonton's Memorial cup hopes.

There were at least three Canuck scorers last night that have gotten into the Canadian cage if the defence had been as sharp as they could have been on some plays, and they must be highly admired for the way they came back.

THE EDMONTONIANS were behind twice in the first period but came back to tie it up and then go ahead. Two more not too well earned counters got into the Canadian net in the second to put the locals behind again. And once more they came back.

That kind of spirit in itself is

The Spirit of Sportsmanship

It's the 'fightingest' game of the season. Every heart beats madly with the joy of battle.
The crowd, packing the huge arena to the rafters, stands and roars its excitement as dangerous rushes threaten both goalies in turn. It's anybody's night. It's everybody's night. It's a wonderful game, whoever wins.
Yes, whoever wins . . . for that is true sportsmanship, the core of our way of life, whether in business or in play. It's the incentive that makes us applaud another's good work, although it may be so our disadvantage. It is the 'something' that smothers spiteful envy. The proud heritage we must strive daily to keep in our hearts.
And we must develop it in our children. We must make it strong within them so that in time to come, when the destiny of our nation is placed in their hands, they'll be fair-minded in their decisions, unbiased in their judgments.
The willingness to give credit where credit is due . . . to think and act impartially . . . to push recognition beyond one's own immediate interests . . . to win gracefully and lose cheerily . . . is the very essence of the Spirit of Sportsmanship . . . part of the Canadian Way of Life.

CANADIAN SPORTSHOTS

WINNIPEG, March 14—It's a week since Billy Rose captured the Dominion curling championship for Alberta, and the 1946 Saskatoon competition is fast becoming a memory garnished by a smattering of second guessing and post-mortems which are still making conversation among the followers of the roarin' game.

A thought for next year's Briers: Is that the British Columbia entry, whoever that will be, is going to have to travel right across Canada to take part when the 10 provincial rinks meet in Saint John.

By train it will be a long jaunt—one of the present disadvantages of shifting the venue of the event around each year.

All of this started some talk of the convenience of holding it in Toronto annually as was done up to 1940. Some favor was expressed but others didn't care much for the idea, suggesting airplane travel as an alternative. Anyway, if such an arrangement does come about, it won't be until each province has had the opportunity to play host at least once.

The word among officials in Saskatoon seems to point to Toronto for the 1948 competition, then Calgary the next year.

what helps no little in winning a hockey game.

One player on the Moose Jaw club who is receiving a lot of praise is their cagey netminder, Emile Francis, who has been nothing short of sensational throughout the first two games.

HE EVEN RATES high in the Canadian books, and they are the guys who should know. They have been trying to get the puck past him. The custodian has a wonderful pair of hands and the Edmonton fans now figure if they are to beat him they have to keep their shots low where he will have to kick them out.

Canadians are due to leave for the Saskatchewan city tonight and accompanying the players will be coach Earl Robertson, Manager Ben Henry and Stew Hart, who will be handling the trainer's duties for Johnny McIntyre.

Today's big question: Can Flyers beat Calgary tonight?

CAL GARDNER NETS TWO AS RANGERS WIN 5-3

BOSTON, March 14—(AP)—The lowly New York Rangers last night endangered Boston Bruins' National Hockey League second-place playoff chances by coming from behind with a terrific third period drive to gain a 5-3 victory before a packed 13,900 crowd at the Boston Garden. The blueshirts clinched by scoring thrice within almost as many minutes after the Bruins had run out of goals.

The teams came here from New York, where the Bruins gained a 3-2 win Tuesday night, to complete their season's series. The apparently inked Rangers opened the scoring during the seventh minute of play but held their advantage for only 17 seconds.

After rookie Cal Gardner, who tallied twice, opened the scoring Terry Reardon, Woody Dumart and Don Gallinger each bested goalie Chuck Rayner to give the Bruins a 3-1 lead with less than 18 minutes to play.

Agriculture "C" Now Leads Men's Booster Teams Event

The Agriculture "C" entry in the Men's Booster Teams event established the only new high score Wednesday in the Edmonton Five-Pin Bowling Association tournament when they rang up a 2410 count to overshadow the previous mark of 2342 set up by Provincial Secretary last Saturday.

Laflamme still holds the top mark in the "A" aggregate with a total of 2556 pins.

In the Mixed teams division the Baby Hawks came within 38 points of the high of 2681, bowled by National Home, leaders in that class.

Mercier and Hanson are at present runners-up in the "B" doubles, their mark of 1303 being only 24 pins short of that set by Mather and Bob English.

Agriculture "A" trails the Caterpillars by 70 points in the "B" teams competition and Turks follow closely in third place.

A number of Vancouver bowlers arrived in the city yesterday. Members of the executive committee welcomed the new entrants to the tournament and it is expected that they will offer stiff competition in the meet.

Port Arthur Takes Opener In Western Junior Series

PORT ARTHUR, March 14—(CP)—Port Arthur Flyers built up an early margin and led all the way as they whipped Winnipeg Monarchs 7-4 here last night in the first game of a best-of-seven Western Canada junior semi-final series. Second game will be played here Friday after which the teams will move to Winnipeg for the remainder.

A sell-out crowd of about 3,800 saw the Manitoba champions, playing without two of their star players, Don McRae and Clint Albright, go down to defeat in one of the dullest play-off contests seen here in years.

Port Arthur was paced by a pair of flashy three-goal performances by Ray Cereseno, one of the three players picked up from Port Arthur Bruins, and Ali Baccari, and was backed by alert netminding of Rod McDonald.

Louis Milani got the other tally for the Thunder Bay champions while Winnipeg's scoring was divided among Harry Taylor, Gord Fashoway, George Robertson and Eddie Marchant.

LINEUPS:

Winnipeg: Gibson; Tyndall, May; Marchant; Beatty, Bucharan. Subs—Robertson, Taylor, Fashoway, Scott, Rockey.

Port Arthur—McDonald; Hyrmnak, Milani; Black, Baccari. Subs—Mackay, Glover, Milani, Ceresino, Main.

Officials—Stan Fuller and Gordon Pierce, both of Regina.

Second period: 4—Winnipeg, Taylor (Robertson) 4:57; 5—Port Arthur, Baccari (Migay) 8:40; 6—Winnipeg, Fashoway (Tindale) 10:34; 7—Port Arthur, Baccari (Wet) 12:47. Penalties—Hyrmnak, Marchant.

Soccer Tragedy Cuts Attendance

BOLTON, Lancashire, March 14—(Reuters)—Scarcely 5,000 people were present at Wednesday's soccer match at the Bolton Wanderers' football ground here, scene of last Saturday's disaster when 33 persons were killed in a crowd stampede after a barrier had given way. Wanderers tied with Bradford yesterday 0-0.

Although police were posted at various points on the ground, the precautions were unnecessary, since the embankment section of the field which on Saturday held between 28,000 and 28,000 people, was almost empty.

Dallas in Tie

DALLAS, March 14—(CP)—Fort Worth Rangers and Dallas Texans battled to a 3-3 overtime tie in the United States Hockey League last night. The verdict left the fifth place visitors a game ahead of the locals.

Players Who Jump Ask for Trouble

CHICAGO, March 14—(AP)—Rogers Hornsby says any baseball player who jumps a contract in United States organized baseball to play in the Mexican league is courting trouble, financial and otherwise.

The "Rajah" should know. He's been down there. He didn't stay long, but he said he stayed long enough to find out.

"Until that league gets a contract with the national association (which includes all professional clubs in the United States and those in Canada affiliated with leagues that also operate in the United States) a player is foolish to go down there," Hornsby said in an interview here Wednesday.

"They didn't pay off my contract on time. They paid in Mexican dollars, pesos, which have much less value than our dollars, and the player had no protection."

Hornsby, who managed the Vera Cruz team for Jorge Pasquel for 90 days in 1944, said he left when "I kept getting 'manana' (tomorrow) for an answer when I tried to collect the rest of my contract."

TODAY'S MARKETS

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, March 14.—(CP) — The selling was again more urgent than the buying in today's session of the Toronto Exchange and prices were marked down sizeably although the losses were far from matching the sharp decline of Wednesday. The close was down for all four index groups. Volume was 1,700,000 shares, a big drop from the turnover of the previous session.

Gains in golds were held by Wright-Hargreaves, Dome, Giant, Frobisher, Madsen, Wasa Lake, Conwest and Pamour and Lunward firmed 20 cents or more. Definite weakness was displayed by Macdonald, Malartic Gold Fields, Aunor, Vicour, Perron, Taku River and others.

Anglo-Canadian, Roxana, Pacalta and Mid-Continent were higher western oils.

Forever Amber's

Cornel Wilde, who made his first big screen hit playing Chopin in "A Song to Remember," has been selected to play Bruce Carlton, the fellow Amber really loved (if any), in "Forever Amber." He was released from studio suspension to take the leading male role in the screen version of Kathleen Winsor's best-seller.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, March 14 — (AP) — Selected stocks operated in the recovery column today although many market pivotals continued to seek lower levels. While gains of fractions to 2 points or so were in evidence near the close, losses of as much dotted the ticker tape. Transfers of around 1,000,000 shares compared with 1,610,000 on Wednesday's slump.

LONDON STOCKS

LONDON, March 14—(Reuters)—The London stock market today continued under the influence of the Iranian crisis and Generalissimo Joseph Stalin's attack on Winston Churchill last night further accentuated heaviness in dealings.

There was, however, no undue pressure to sell and later gold led a partial recovery in some groups. Gilt-ledgeds—British government stock—failed to respond to the improvement and with losses up to ⅛ were the day's weak feature.

CPR Main Line Trains Held Up

CALGARY, March 14—(CP)—Eastbound Canadian Pacific trains were three hours late in Calgary last night. According to passengers on the No. 4 train, due in Calgary at 7:35 p.m. the train was held up by a snow slide a few miles west of Golden, B.C. No. 8, due at 8:05 p.m., was also held up by the slide.

Early Advances In Rye Are Lost

WINNIPEG, March 14.—(CP)—Early advances in rye futures were reduced in late trading on the Winnipeg grain exchange today and at the close prices showed a range of ½-3 cents higher.

Offerings became more liberal towards the close and selling accredited to American accounts offset fair local buying.

Closing quotations were May ½ cent higher at $2.42, July three cents higher at $2.27 asked, and October ⅝ higher at $1.94¾ bid.

Further export sales were recorded with the United Kingdom taking 250,000 bushels of wheat and 300,000 bushels sold to Belgium.

Wheat Futures Back at Ceilings

CHICAGO, March 14.—(AP)—Oats and May rye were under moderate pressure most of the time today, but all wheat futures were back at ceiling prices in a light trade.

Gains of ¼ to ⅜ of a cent a bushel shortly after the start of trading put September and December wheat back at the maximum quotations along with May and July. The reinstatement of the top allowable figures completed the recovery of around 2 cents a bushel which the grain lost in a general selloff a week ago.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅜ cent higher, all deliveries at $1.83½ ceiling; corn unchanged at $1.21½ ceiling bid; oats ¼ down to ⅛ up; rye unchanged to 1¼ lower; barley unchanged.

Wheat—No. 2 red and No. 2 hard, 1.82 nominal, ceiling; no sales; corn, No. 2 yellow 1.19 nominal; no oats; barley, malting 1.25-1.43½ nominal; feed 1.14-1.24½ nominal.

Five carlots from this area were exported to Great Britain, four carlots were stored under the fall contract, and five lots moved into drying channels during the week. Chicken receipts are down 41 per cent. and fowl receipts are down 15.6 per cent. from last week. HATCHERY OUTLOOK
This week's summary is based on reports received from 16 hatcheries out of a total of 47 hatcheries for the province, and represents setting capacity of 41 per cent. of the total capacity for the province. Total capacity in use by these 16 hatcheries reporting is 76 per cent. Total chicks hatched to date by these hatcheries is 382,159, with an average hatchability of 64.3 per cent. The demand for pullets is exceptionally good, and the demand for mixed chicks slightly easier. Demand for cockerels has eased off slightly, consequently some hatcheries are compelled to gas. During the week 6,700 light weight cockerels and 4,550 heavyweight cockerels were destroyed. Breeds most in demand are New Hampshires, White Leghorns, Barred Rocks, in this order. Some hatcheries report an increase of 20 per cent. on booking and sales over last year, with the odd hatchery reporting a slight decrease. However, on the whole it is considered that bookings to date are approximately 10 to 15 per cent. higher than for the same period in 1945. The majority of hatcheries are heavily booked for deliveries well into May. Further, it is expected that sales for 1946 will come close to reeaching the peak year of 1944, notwithstanding that operations were 10 days to two weeks later in getting started than during the past three years.

1945 broilers are beginning to appear on the local market. One party has made a contract for the purchase of three to four thousand day-old cockerels for the remainder of the season. Approximately 50 per cent. of these birds are caponized, crate-fed and processed at two months and sold on local barket. To date demand for this class of poultry is very keen, especially in hotel and restaurant trade.

Says Farmers Would Support 40-Hour Week

Benefits of a 40-hour week and 60 cents an hour minimum wage rate for skilled farm labor, would be conceded by the Alberta Farmers' Union, according to Carl Stimpfle, president of the union, who appeared before the agriculture committee of the Legislature Thursday morning.

MR. STIMPFLE WAS CALLED upon to answer a barrage of questions from members of the committee, who met to give further consideration to requested amendments in labor legislation.

Mr. Stimpfle was supported by James Jackson, Irma, vice-president of the farmers' group.

When he made his original submission, Wednesday, the president emphasized the need for unity in Canada between groups of Canadian workers. United Canada had won a war. "If we lose that unity," he warned, "we will lose the peace as we did after the last war."

MR. JACKSON SUPPORTED the views expressed by Mr. Stimpfle, pleading that no one in this country wants to return to the hungry 30's and that unity among all the working people is an essential if such a tragedy is to be averted.

His organization represented about 20,000 Alberta farmers, he said in answer to a question by the Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of trade and industry.

The minister continued with a query as to whether or not farm organizations would support blanket labor legislation which would also cover provisions for farm labor.

MR. STIMPFLE REPLIED that farm labor was not yet organized, which he thought would be a necessity before they could enter negotiations, but he conceded that with skilled farm labor it was a reasonable suggestion.

"Do you support the minimum wage of 60 cents-an-hour for farm help?" Mr. Gerhart asked.

Mr. Stimpfle replied that if parity prices for farm products were obtained the farmers would support the 60-cent minimum.

Female workers on farms could also be classed as "skilled", Mr. Stimpfle admitted in answer to questions from Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC—Calgary) and also stated that they were entitled to the eight-hour day with the 60 cents an hour wage.

Ford's Monarch Big, Smart Car

The new Monarch passenger car, mentioned for the first time in a recent announcement by Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, is to be a big, smartly styled entrant in the medium-priced, luxury field of transportation, it was explained here today.

RELEASING DETAILS on the new car, being built at Ford of Canada's factories in Windsor, Rhys M. Sale, general sales manager, said the Monarch "will be a big car, powered by a 97-horsepower V8 engine which features many post-war mechanical refinements."

He added that the Monarch will have a 118-inch wheelbase, 129-inch spring base with low frequency springing and incorporating special stabilizing and breaking features for smooth ride control under all road conditions. From front to rear bumper, he continued, this car will present an appearance of quality, sturdy sleekness and agility. Every phase of driver and passenger comfort has been carefully studied and the results applied."

DEEP, WIDE SEATS, trimmed in panel design using two-tone biege Bedford cord or broadcloth, with high, luxuriously cushioned backs, and a particularly attractive instrument panel designed in keeping with post-war concepts, are interior attractions. Sound instalation has been increased by the application of rubber at more than 200 points. Heater and defroster are standard equipment.

The ROAD AHEAD

By HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

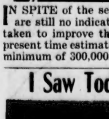

IN SPITE of the seriousness of the present situation there are still no indications that any important steps are to be taken to improve the housing situation in Canada. At present time estimates of the shortage run all the way from a minimum of 300,000 to more than a million units.

RECENTLY RECONSTRUCTION Minister Howe announced that he had appointed a seven-man commission to review the entire supply situation to find out what could be done to ensure sufficient materials to meet demand, which, in spite of the fact that it is about two years overdue, is still a sound idea. He also announced that materials would be made available to permit the completion of homes and units started in 1945 and still incomplete. This too is perfectly sound—although a little overdue. Mr. Howe also announced that he was convinced that our real need was for low-cost housing, which is not particularly startling news because people have been trying to tell Mr. Ilsley and Mr. Howe this for more than a year now. It is interesting to note, however, that Mr. Howe has finally understood some of the things people have been trying to tell him.

THE HOUSING situation is going to be far more serious next winter than it was this. During the war everyone was prepared to

Debate on Budget To End Thursday

End of the budget debate in the Alberta Legislature was signalled when the assembly adjourned Wednesday afternoon just after Premier Ernest Manning, provincial treasurer, moved adjournment of the day's debate.

Including the premier's original presentation of the budget, 14 speakers have aired their views in the traditional debate. A year ago 48 members were on the list of speakers who have already indicated their intention to take part in the discussion following the budget introduction.

When the Legislature comes to that order of business Thursday afternoon, Mr. Manning will be the only speaker to be heard, after which the house will move to accept it.

War Veterans Rehabilitated By Woolworths

The rehabilitation of almost all ex-service men and women employees of the F. W. Woolworth Company in Canada is nearing completion, it was stated in an interview Wednesday with A. B. Munro of Toronto, supervisor of organization and personnel for the company's 145 stores across Canada.

MR. MUNRO IS IN THE city in the course of his annual western visit to the different stores from coast-to-coast, and is accompanying the firm's general manager for Canada, H. J. Cook, also of Toronto.

Conferences have been held with Walter Swingle, manager of the company's Edmonton store.

Between 5,000 and 6,000 employees formed the sales personnel for the company in Canada, he said and gave as the reason for the veterans' speedy readjustment to civil life the company's special employees' training plan, which was designed for the veterans' welfare "with all the short-cuts possible."

He said that in his trips across Canada in the last number of years there was evidence of "an even greater esprit de corps" among the company's employees since the end of the war, and this was especially noticeable among ex-service personnel.

MR. MUNRO STATED that his company was "singularly free" of labor troubles, and added that he thought the employees shared the company's pride in the benefits received through company-sponsored plans.

"We feel we give our employees more than they could get through any labor bargaining agency," stated Mr. Munro.

Among the advantages a Woolworth employee received were:

A non-contributory pension plan upon which the company fully paid the annual premium on an amount represented by one and one-third times the yearly salary of the employee; an average of 45 hours a week with all statutory holidays and annual paid vacations.

CHRISTMAS BONUSES aggregating up to $50 per employee and another feature, he said. There were also 15-minute relief periods morning and afternoon, and additional time granted for personal shopping.

Most of the returned veterans were members of the RCAF, said Mr. Munro, among whom there were many who had received high decorations. Of the army personnel he singled out an employee of the company's Moose Jaw store, J. Campbell, who was awarded the OBE during the western visit of Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, CH, CMG, DSO.

Mr. Munro and Mr. Cook were due to leave Edmonton Wednesday night for Vancouver.

Roper Submission Ruled Out of Order

An "out-of-order" ruling from the Speaker's chair on Wednesday greeted efforts of Elmer E. Roper (CCF-Edmonton) to place on the table in the Legislative Assembly figures which he said corrected certain statistics given in the course of the Hon. W. A. Fallow's address in the Throne Speech debate.

The figures related to the per capita share of education costs borne by the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan and the CCF member intimated that those given by the minister of public works were incorrect. The figures he attempted to place on the table were from the public accounts of the province of Alberta and from the same source in the province of Saskatchewan. Mr. Roper said as he moved that the corrected figures be tabled.

But Speaker Peter Dawson ruled that the authority quoted had no weight in the house and amid cries of government degrees of "Shut up!" "Sit down" and "Quit Playing Politics," Mr. Roper found that his submission was not in order.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Edmonton Resident For 14 Years, Dies

Resident of Edmonton for the last 14 years and of the province for the last 20 years, Mrs. Julia Maud Johnson, of 11832 90 street, wife of John Louis Johnson, died here Wednesday. She was 67 years old. She was a native of Ontario.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Friday from Strathcona Baptist Church by the Rev. G. M. Edwards. Burial will be in Edmonton Cemetery.

Surviving are her husband and one son, Harrold of Ponoka; two daughters, Clara of Yellamanchilli, India, and Holly of Edmonton. Hainstock and Son Ltd. funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Local Ski Team Going to Banff

Inter-city slalom ski championships will be resumed for the first time since February, 1942, when a six-man team made up of skiers from the Edmonton, Eskimo and Varsity clubs meets Calgary holdera of the Cross trophy in a weekend contest on the slopes of Mount Norquay, Banff.

More than 300 skiers will leave Edmonton on the special train Saturday night to take advantage of what has been reported to be the season's best skiing weather, and will return early Monday morning. It is expected a large number of Calgarians will be on hand to witness the rival teams dodge obstacles during their swift and precipitous descent.

Students' Council Elected at U of A

University students went to the polls Wednesday to elect their council and faculty representatives for the 946-47 session.

An arts student, Boyne Johnston, won the vice-presidency by a sizeable majority.

Jack Brennagh, law student formerly in the air force, was elected treasurer.

Bill Pybus and Eldon Foote were put into the offices of president and secretary of the Students' Council, respectively, by acclamation.

OTHER NEWLY-ELECTED members are:

President of the Literary Association, Alta Mitchell; secretary of the Music Association, Betty Williamson; secretary of the Wauneita Society, Lois Neilson; secretary of Women's Athletic Association, Jeanne Gauld; president of men's athletics, "Mickey" Hajash; secretary of men's athletics, Ron Manery; women's disciplinary committee, Jocelyn Simpson and Betty Gibson; arts faculty representative, Frank Fish; Engineering Student Society representative, Murray Stewart.

Other positions filled by acclamation were: President of Wauneita Society, Lillian Gehrke; president of Musical Association, Gordon F. Clark; secretary of the Literary Association, Elsie Muriel Mills; president of women's athletics, Vera Holec; nursea representative, Dorothy Rostrup.

Show Paintings

Water color paintings by three Manitoba artists are now on display in the University Arts Building. The artists are A. P. Hunter, Jean Eyden and V. F. Friesen.

Police Hope It'll Soon Pass

"Spring Fever," Abundant Energy Bring Wave of Childish Pranks

It may just be an outbreak of spring fever and an over-abundant supply of energy, but Edmonton's younger fry are causing complaints to pour into police headquarters every day from citizens whose ire has been aroused by the pranks of the youngsters.

WEDNESDAY'S ROZAK OF THE CHECKER Taxi Company, complained that boys playing on Connor's road, between 91 and 92 streets, were throwing stones at passing vehicles. One well-aimed missile struck and broke the front windshield of one of his cabs, he reported.

Mrs. A. J. McKay of 10624 97 avenue phoned police to report that some children were laying down a barrage on her windows with pea shooters. No damage was done, but the rattle of peas against her windows was proving most alarming, she said.

FROM ALL SECTIONS OF THE CITY come reports that both girls and boys are throwing snow and ice against houses. There were about a dozen complaints regarding this pastime during last week-end alone, and more have been received since.

Police officers, who must investigate each complaint and try and apprehend the culprits, are hoping that the spring fever epidemic will soon pass. They are kept busy enough without having to spend valuable hours trying to curb such childish pranks.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION

Have you any prophecy to make regarding the outcome of the current Edmonton Flyers-Calgary Stampeders hockey series?

THE ANSWERS

HERMAN EDWARDS, salesman: I am inclined to agree with Bobby Carse that in Tuesday night's Alberta Flyer defeat entirely were not so badly beaten as the score would indicate. I am looking for a reversal so far as Calgary is concerned in tonight's game.

JIMMY BAINES, insurance agent: As a citizen who until the end of last year was a long resident of Calgary, I'm afraid my support goes to the southern city team. All due credit to the Flyers, but I'm afraid they're up against a brick wall in their efforts to knock the Stampeders out of their path.

* * *

J. I. TOOEY, miner: If I were a gambling man, which thanks to the wife I'm not, I would put my money down in favor of the Flyers taking the series. But I believe that every game is going to be a hard-fought affair without any overwhelming victory for either side. I'll change my opinion after tonight's game but I don't think so.

Travellers Name Officers For Year

W. Weston was elected senior councillor of the Edmonton Council 447 of the United Commercial Travellers for the new term at the annual meeting in the IOOF hall on Saturday night. The annual banquet would be held March 16.

Other officers elected were: Junior councillor, L. Beatty; past senior councillor, Norman Farquharson; secretary-treasurer, E. Carlson; conductor, J. A. M. Green; page, P. Burden; sentinel, W. McLean; chaplain, J. M. Wilson; executive committee, A. E. Austin, T. A. Davison, W. Ferguson, and J. Lakeland.

Chosen as delegates to the grand council meeting at North Battleford in June were W. Weston and N. Farquharson.

Education Aims Told at Meeting

Education should aim to foster in boys and girls a profound sense of human worth, a general devotion to the welfare of the masses, a deep aversion to tyranny and a firm belief in Christian ideals, according to an address by A. T. Tingley, director of technical education, department of education, to members of the Garneau Home and School Association, meeting in the Garneau school on Tuesday evening.

The meeting was divided into two classes. Mr. Tingley addressed one group and Prof. Van Vliet, University of Alberta, lectured to the other.

MR. TINGLEY stated that it is more important from the standpoint of both society and the individual as to what kind of a social unit students become, rather than the number of prescribed courses they take. He added "we must stress the factors that build positive, rather than uncover the negative elements of intelligence. We must also emphasize the presence of ability rather than the absence."

He concluded with the statement that the school should be the social centre of a community.

A total of 4,170 pounds of meat was condemned by city health department inspectors in 710 inspections conducted at city abbatoirs during February, according to a report filed Thursday with the city commissioners by Dr. G. M. Little.

OF THE MEAT condemned 1,370 pounds tuberculous pork, 40 pounds of tuberculous beef, 700 pounds of pork infected with pneumonia, 350 pounds of pork with arthritis, 350 pounds of pork with rhinitis, and 2,060 pounds rejected on minor causes.

Ninety dairy farms in the Edmonton milk shed were inspected during February, and five registration certificates were suspended temporarily. A total of 37 certificates of registration were issued during the month.

Theatre Group Presents Three One-Act Plays

New acting talent was introduced to Edmonton at the Masonic Temple Wednesday night, when the Edmonton Community Theatre presented "New Players Night" which featured three one-act plays.

THE PLAYS WERE STAGED with success and several individuals stood out as promising theatre talent. All three of the plays were presented as near as possible under festival conditions, making extensive use of drapes.

The time lapse between plays was perhaps a little too long and added to the uneasiness of the capacity crowd. Sound effects were particularly good and the lighting also helped a great deal in putting over the plays. The stage setting was good as was the make-up in the exception that in one or two places it was overdone.

The play which presented the best quality of acting was "Say What You Will" by Sara Carsley, directed by Les Pilcher. The actors of all six in the cast were particularly good and the lighting also helped a great deal in putting over the plays. The stage setting was good as was the make-up in the exception that in one or two places it was overdone.

The play which presented the best quality of acting was "Say What You Will" by Sara Carsley, directed by Les Pilcher. The actors of all six in the cast were the standout of the evening. Those taking part in it were Muriel Langford, Margaret Gordon, Harriett Smith, Grant Webber, Roy Blakely and Arthur Stoney.

THE OTHER PLAYS were "Drums of Ouder" by Austin Strong, and "Triffles" by Susan Glaspell. Those who took part in the former, under the direction of Jack Unwin, were Al Halbrad, Jack Yaxley, Bob Runck, Paul Steeves, Edna Steeves, Lawrence Moon and Mary Yates.

The cast of "Triffles", under the direction of Marion Jones, included Rolland Elleflson, Murray Kendrick, K. Madison-Mansfield, Margaret Ann and Betty Dunlop.

Others who assisted in presenting the plays were: production manager, Faith Clifton; stage craft, Dick MacDonald, Lawrence Lee, George Day, Ray Peters, Jim Jordin, Jim Barford, Mickey Macdonald and Vic Bellamy; costumes, Naomi Peters, Muriel Peters, Viola Jefferson, Mary Geiblehaus; properties and costuming, Rose Marie Hart, Jo Pilcher, and Beverly Sackville; sound effects, Gordon McKinnon; lighting, Ted McCourtney and Bill Webster. Others assisting were Joel Smith and Alex Watson.

Mrs. T. Dwan greatly enlivened the lag between plays with a fine selection of piano numbers.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that the play "I Remember Mamma" will be presented by the Edmonton Community theatre in the Empire Theatre on April 27. There will be a matinee and evening performance. This will be the first time this play, which is still running on Broadway, will be staged by a Canadian amateur group.—J. W.

Veterans May Farm Alta. School Land

Amendments to the Provincial Lands Act which include a ruling that the sale of school lands to a veteran for his "re-establishment in agriculture" shall be deemed to be in the "public interest" were given first reading in the Legislature Wednesday afternoon. The bill was introduced by Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines.

The minister has had the authority in the past to sell school lands as a part of a block for irrigation purposes or for an Indian or other public reserve, or for any other purpose the minister deems to be in the public interest.

Other amendments in the bill deal with the rights of lessees of provincial lands.

Royalties on minerals—and the computation of such royalties which are to be paid by lessees of provincial lands form another section of the amending bill.

Mr. McGhee explained that the award constituted "the highest mark of esteem that the association could confer," and he praised Mr. Tanner's staff of forest, fisheries and game workers. Present at the dinner were Premier Ernest Manning, his ministers and members of the Legislature.

Ides of March Spell No Good For Gen. Franco

If the Bard of Avon were living today it would be a matter of global interest to hear the modern version by his matchless insight of the Soothsayer's warning to Julius Caesar to "beware the Ides of March."

If Shakespeare were plying his quill to the present political situation of Spain there might be added cause for increasing headaches of Dictator Francisco Franco, one of the last modern "sawdust Caesars" still remaining on the international account books.

March 15, named "the Ides of March" in the drama, is the traditional Shakespearian time period when all who would be replicas of the Roman dictator, whether internationally, provincially, in business or right in the home, "to tread carefully and to keep a sleepless vigil lest they fall from their eminence."

More Than 100 Home Building Permits Issued

Gathering impetus as the city's building season draws near, the number of building permits issued for dwellings has passed the 100 mark, and the average of applications for permits is steadily increasing, according to Maxwell C. Dewar, city architect.

The home-building permits issued in the past four days were: William Kruger, 10621 and 10624 104 street two homes each costing $4,500; Adolph Klann, 10949 95 street, $3,500; Alex and Irene Brown, 11135 58 street, $4,200; Maurice Tougas, 8902 112 avenue, two dwellings each costing $3,000; Sigurd Lindrum Hope, 11436 72 street, $3,000; Leo Herder, 11159 67 street, $3,200.

Seacoy Family Sought in City

Information regarding a family by the name of Seacoy which was said to have come to Canada from Branard, Nfld., several years ago, was sought in a letter received by the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday.

THE INQUIRER, Ben M. Price of Champaign, Ill., asks especially about his aunt, Sarah Seacoy, whom he believes died in this province, or of any member of the family with that name. There were several brothers, he wrote. A search of directories here revealed no such person as Sarah Seacoy.

North Alberta Red Cross Fund Almost $17,000

Close to $17,000 has been donated to date in the Northern Alberta Red Cross campaign as Edmonton businessmen continued to throw their support behind the national organization's peacetime plans to provide a free blood-transfusion service to every Canadian in need of such medical treatment.

Govt. Education Aid Said Small

In spite of the fact that Hon. R. E. Ansley, minister of education, asserts that the provincial government pays 26 per cent of the educational costs of the province, the fact remains that only five per cent of Edmonton's educational costs are paid by the province, Mayor Harry Ainlay stated Wednesday in reply to Mr. Ansley's statement in the Legislature Tuesday.

MAYOR AINLAY SAID the figures quoted by him at the Garneau school meeting on Monday night last had been supplied by officials of Edmonton's Public School Board and there was no doubt of their correctness.

He said that he had been asked by the trustees of that Board to address the inaugural meeting of a series being held to awaken public opinion to the fact that the province of Alberta was paying such a small part of educational costs in Edmonton, compared with payments made by other western provinces to the cost of education in their cities.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

People Fail to Gain From Experience School

Benjamin Franklin Said "Experience Keeps a Dear School, But Fools Will Learn in No Other"

Wise old Benjamin Franklin said: "Experience keeps a dear school, but fools will learn in no other." Far be it from me to argue with that immortal sage, but my observation is that fools never learn from experience, and that even people with a high I.Q. rarely profit from their blunders. They can read the danger signals that life erects along their pathway, but they refuse to heed the warning and stumble in the same old pit, time and time again.

As an example of our inability to learn from experience, take our health. That is the most important thing in the world to us, for on it depends our ability to succeed, our usefulness and our happiness. If we are sick and feeble and racked with pain, nothing else matters.

YET WHILE ALL of us know from experience the things that will not only make us ill, but shorten our lives, we keep on doing them. We know that if we gorge ourselves on rich food, it is going to give us dyspepsia; if we worry too much, we will get stomach ulcers; if we overwork and overplay, we are going to break ourselves down. We know, in a word, if we don't take care of our physical machine, it is going to pieces like the one-hoss shay. Yet we keep on pushing it until it collapses.

Then think how little people seem to learn from experience about how to handle money. The suckers are everywhere from the cradle to the grave. No matter how many times they are cheated, they can still be sold blue sky by any glib talker. And the men and women who have holes in their pockets never sew them up.

I had a friend who was alternately rich and poor. She inherited three different fortunes and spent them. Each time I would think that her experience would have taught her to take care of her money, but it didn't. And she died without a cent.

AND MARRIAGE. Doesn't it seem that a man and woman who had a bitterly unhappy matrimonial experience would hesitate to try it again and would, at least, look over the new prospect with a wary eye? Yet women who have had husbands who beat them or starved and were unfaithful to them, and men who have been cursed with wives who were viragoes and naggers, who made their lives a torment to them, can hardly wait to get their divorces to get married again. Nor do they use any more discretion in picking out their Number Twos than they did their Number Ones.

Then the daily spats that wreck so many homes. The inability of so many husbands and wives to get along harmoniously is the direct result of their never learning anything from experience. No man and woman can live together in wedlock for even a month, to say nothing of years, without knowing every quirk of the other's disposition and character. And if they had not been too dumb to learn, experience would have taught them how to keep off of each other's sore points.

"Experience keeps a dear school," said the wise Mr. Franklin. Since we have to pay such a high price for our education, what a pity that we don't learn more from our mistakes.

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Relaxation is important to averting fatigue so common after long hours of work. Actress Pat White, above, demonstrates one exercise which relieves the tension at the back of the neck.

IF WE COULD JUST learn the art of relaxation it would be so important to us because it would allow us to live and to work without fatigue. It is entirely possible to acquire this art. You can start in a small way and almost immediately notice the difference in yourself. You will find that you are not only less tired but that you work more efficiently.

JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We go at every thing with rush and tension and a feeling of high pressure within ourselves. Deliberately relax at your work. Untense. Take it easy. You will get just as much or more done. It doesn't help to have all of the muscles in your body tense and your tongue rigid in your mouth when you concentrate.

EVEN WHEN YOU USE only a few muscles in your work, if you will observe yourself, you will find that you are tensing many others which you do not need. Many times a day say to yourself, "Slow up! Untense!" You will feel the muscles relax and you will avoid fatigue.

Exercise is a splendid relaxer If you do not go at it with too much. Setting-up exercises are more valuable when you do them in a rhythmic, swing and stretch manner.

Your golf game will not relax you if you swing with tense muscles, fuss over your score and become frustrated if your game is not up to par.

DANCING IS WONDERFUL exercise for it combines the soothing effect of music with the pleasure of physical motion. It is too bad that custom causes us to dance far into the night and usually in smoke-filled, poorly-ventilated spots. The value to health is somewhat mitigated by the accompanying loss of sleep and devitalized air.

The theatre is relaxing to many persons. Music is relaxing to virtually all of us. Bridge would be relaxing if we played it pleasurably and hard but left off the tension and stewing when we make a mistake or have bad luck. Bridge can be recommended as a relaxer to few married couples for often the following discussion go far into the night, after sparks have flown across the table all evening.

TRY TO TAKE LIFE in an easy stride, no matter what you are doing. A little beginning in this youth-prolonging habit will soon pay dividends in increased energy and happiness. What are we all hurrying for? We will get through life too fast as it is!

If you wish to have my leaflet, No. 61, "Watchwords of Science for Youth After Forty," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with this request to Josephine Lowman, in care of this newspaper.

Elizabeth Woodward Says . . .

DON'T WISH IT ON YOUR KIDS

Maybe you are scared to death of the water. Maybe you're back in your youth big brother did toss your clothes and all overboard . . . to sink or swim . . . and you've never been near the wet since.

Maybe you don't like cauliflower. Maybe you're allergic to beets. Maybe chocolates give you hiccups. Or a sinus headache.

Maybe you were disappointed in love. Maybe you saw right through that man . . . and what you saw you didn't like. Maybe you've had experiences with men and with women too . . . that have made you bitter, caustic, downright stubborn.

But why wish all your dislikes on your offspring?

YOU'VE A PERFECT right to like what you like and dislike what doesn't please you. You've lived long enough to have made up a very reasonable mind on most subjects. You've been around and seen places. You've drawn your own conclusions.

But that doesn't end it. That doesn't necessarily mean it's the only set of conclusions to draw. So it seems unfair to me to lay down as unalterable laws of life some of your own personal reactions to things and people. The young people in your life are collecting new experiences every day. They're having their own chance to draw conclusions of their own.

They would profit by your experiences and your reactions . . . if you'd offer them as the way you see it . . . the way you feel about it. It has been your experience that the night follows the day. It has been your experience that bread tossed upon the waters comes back to you. It has been your experience that specific causes usually wind up with specific results. But it is only your experience.

YOUNG PEOPLE . . . if they respect you for your tolerance, your broadmindedness and your generosity . . . will listen to you and be guided. But don't visit your disappointments, your griefs, your disillusionments on your young fry. If to you all men are worms . . . keep your opinion to yourself. If all women are snares and delusions . . . let them find out for themselves. Keep your fears and your sorrows to yourself.

Your young people have enough of their own . . . without trying to absorb yours too!

If something is getting you down spill it in a letter to Elizabeth Woodward . . . she'll be glad to help you. Write her in care of this paper . . . and enclose a stamped and addressed envelope.

Ina being denied when he refuses to eat cereal in the form of breakfast food.

GOOD FEEDING is a vital factor in good health and the mother is at the helm of this important job. She can't leave this all up to her pediatrician, she has to have a keen interest in the foods she is serving to find out what important elements they represent. Then she can plan her children's meals with their body needs in mind.

MRS. H. T. S.: Unless your baby is merely making a dent in the pad you lay over the mattress and not in the mattress itself, your mattress is not padded thickly enough or a baby could not break it down so rapidly. A thick, cotton-felt mattress is ever so adequate for the baby's needs as long as he uses a crib. The higher the price the better the mattress. But it is money well spent.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

DESPITE a mother's familiarity with foods, as such, she is often mistaken in her estimates of the particular classification into which food falls and she tries to make substitutions of one food for another which belongs to a different category of food values.

A mother will say something of this nature. "My little girl doesn't like orange juice, it gives her a rash. So I am giving her prune juice instead."

Or, she remarks that her son won't eat cereal. "But I give him at least one egg a day."

PRUNES ARE FINE. Eggs are fine. But prunes cannot be made to take the place of orange juice, because the vitamin C for which oranges are valuable in the diet is present only in limited quantities in prune juice. Tomato juice, yes, or pineapple or sauer kraut juice can be used as substitutes for orange juice, but prune juice when used should be as an extra fruit, not given in place of the essential high-vitamin juice.

Eggs are a complete protein food. Cereal contains some protein but its chief value in the diet is to provide energy in the form of carbohydrates. Eggs, milk, meat, fish, fowl, provide the child's essential protein.

SOME OF THE HIGH-CARBOHYDRATE FOODS which can be substituted for cereal are potatoes, bananas, all breads and crackers (made of whole grains preferably) and puddings made of cereal grains. These will provide the child with the same type of nourishment he is being denied when he refuses to eat cereal in the form of breakfast food.

Princess Alice Receives Gift

By HELEN BANNERMAN

OTTAWA, March 14.—(CP)—The women of Canada, represented by Senator Cairine Wilson, Wednesday presented Princess Alice with a gift in honor of her five-year stay in Canada and in doing so established a series of scholarships in youth training which will perpetuate the Princess' name throughout the country.

The Princess Alice Foundation Fund, to which Canadian women have contributed instead of to the usual personal gift to the wife of a retiring governor-general, now totals $47,850 and a cheque for this amount was handed to Her Royal Highness at a brief ceremony in government house ballroom.

IDEA FOR the fund come from Princess Alice herself who said in thanking the committee that "it has thus made it possible for me to show in some measure how much I care for the people of Canada and how much I value their friendship."

Her Royal Highness gave the cheque to Chief Justice Thibaudeau Rinfret, who with Watson Sellar, auditor general of Canada, is trustee of the fund.

Referring to the gift as "most generous and most imaginative," she said, "I cannot begin to put into words my gratitude, I can only say thank you again and again from my heart.

PRINCESS Alice received a hand-bound copy of Pierre Lott's "Vers Ispahan" as a personal memento of the occasion.

Since the Princess Alice Foundation Fund was announced some time ago the following amounts have been subscribed: From Nova Scotia, $1,294; New Brunswick, $1,-265; Prince Edward Island, $349; Quebec, $14,475; including $11,075 from Montreal; Ontario, $19,410; Manitoba, $1,945; Saskatchewan, $806; Alberta, $1,173; British Columbia, $2,961; Yukon, $150.

In addition the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service subscribed $1,105; the Canadian Women's Army Corps, $992; the RCAF (WD) $1,382, and nursing sisters in military hospitals, $660.

Agriculture Students Hold Frontier Dance

"Frontier Daze" a dance given by Freshmen Agriculture students of the university, was held Tuesday evening in the Barn. Two hundred attended, dressed in overalls, bright shirts and colorful neckerchiefs in keeping with the dance theme.

"Birdie" (Doug) Brown was in charge and he and his committee, the "Ranch Fourmen", including "Hoff" Hughes, "Cactus" Younger and "Snake" Smith provided a fine evening's entertainment for the Ag students and their friends. Paper Indian head-dress was provided to each guest as standard equipment. Music was supplied by "Frog Fraser and his Frontiersmen".

Prof. J. P. Sackville and Prof. Macgregor Smith entered into the spirit of the affair and arrived in plaid shirts and cowboy kerchiefs.

A contest in which the girls fed the boys pie while the boys fed the girls gingerale through a bottle and nipple caused great hilarity. Johnny Allam and partner were the winners.

Dean of Agriculture, R. D. Sinclair, was also in attendance.

Spring flowers decorated Metropolitan church for the wedding Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. of Miss Alice Enid Fitzsimmons, eldest daughter of Mrs. N. S. Fitzsimmons and Stoker PO. Frederick Earl (Bud) Van Arnam, Jr., RCNVR, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Van Arnam of Elk Point. The Rev. Dr. E. J. Thompson performed the ceremony. Mrs. J. V. Dodds played the wedding music. Guest pews were marked with white bows.

Given in marriage by her brother, LAC. Alan Fitzsimmons, the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a full skirt and a basque bodice having sweetheart neckline and sleeves coming to lily points over the hand. Her long veil was held in place with a satin headdress and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bride's only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

ATTENDING the bride as bridesmaids were her sisters, the Misses Kay and Margaret Fitzsimmons, who wore gowns fashioned on the same lines as the bride's except for short sleeves. Miss Kay wore fuchsia crepe and Miss Margaret chartreuse crepe. They wore ribbon flower headdresses and carried colonial bouquets of spring flowers.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, George Van Arnam, recently discharged from the Canadian Army. He was a prisoner of war for two years. Ushers were Corp. Alan Ripley, RCAF and Harry Barr, RCNVR.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons chose for her daughter's wedding a pistachio green net and crepe dress, brown hat, shoes and gloves and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Van Arnam, mother of the bridegroom wore a black dress with hat to match and a corsage of red roses.

AFTER THE ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where the rooms were decorated with spring flowers and the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake embedded in tulle, flanked by vases of spring flowers and white tapers. The bride's aunt, Mrs. George Hetherington poured tea and assisting were Mrs. E. L. Leitch, Mrs. A. V. Hardy, the Misses Kay Barr, Elizabeth Whittaker and Judy Bernier. The best man proposed the toast to the bride.

Later the couple left for a honeymoon in Montreal, the bride travelling in a grey wool dressmaker suit, turquoise blue blouse, black cheverfield coat and black accessories. The couple will make their home in St. Hyacinthe, Que.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. F. E. Van Arnam, Sr., Elk Point; Mrs. George Hetherington, aunt of the bride and Richard Hetherington, Molarin, Que.; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McFetridge, Consort; Romeo Dessureau, Bonnyville.

Member Urges Greater Vote For Forestry

Two speakers in the budget debate in the Legislature Wednesday agreed that it was a simple matter to criticize a budget brought in by any government, but that critics were much freer among the opposition with the realization that they do not occupy the treasury benches and do not have to find the necessary money to pay for increased services. The two speakers were Ivan Casey (SC, Okotoks-High River) and N. A. Willmore (SC, Edson).

"THE GOVERNMENT which spends with a free hand, must collect with a heavy hand," Mr. Casey said as he pointed out that under the present financial system there is only one source of revenue open to the government—the pockets of the people.

He was echoed by Mr. Willmore who said, "Those complaining that estimated expenditures are too low should also explain where they would get the money to raise them. Would they collect more taxes or would they borrow? I am sure the people of Alberta would be interested to know."

He did not agree, the Okotoks member said, with a statement by the hon. C. C. Gerhart, minister of municipal affairs, who had suggested that land assessed at $35 an acre was selling for as high as $500. Accurate figures on selling prices should form a part of the basis for assessments, he claimed.

HE PAID TRIBUTE to the staff of the provincial land titles office, which he said was overworked and understaffed. He said that before a campaign suggested by the municipal affairs minister for an exploration of land titles throughout the province be started the staff of the land titles office should be increased.

Mr. Willmore was gratified to see from the estimates that expenditures for road improvements in Improvement Districts had been increased. While good main highways are needed to attract the tourist trade, people living in the isolated areas also needed roads for local marketing and in order to reach the main highways.

The Brazeau-Athabasca forest reserve is one of the province's most priceless assets, he pointed out, as he said: "It is one of the last great stands of timber in Alberta today".

HE URGED THAT trails should be built through the reserve so that men and materials could be quickly transported to fire scenes and suggested that a bulldozer might be made part of equipment to be kept on such a forest area, to build trails and to construct fire guards.

"The forest rangers are some of the finest civil servants in the employ of the government," he said as he asked increased assistance to them in the future.

He asked that in future years the government consider the expenditure of more money not only for forest preservation but also from the game protection angle.

Last year he said droves of hunters came into his constituency, some of them in what he termed "expeditions." The forest rangers, who also act as game guardians, were handicapped by lack of help and were unable to cope with the situation as the woods became flooded with eager hunters.

Soldier Acquitted Of Jap Camp Death

WINNIPEG, March 14—(CP)—A general court martial yesterday found Cpl. (A.-Sgt.) John Hugh Harvey of London, Eng., innocent on a manslaughter charge arising out of the death of a Canadian soldier in a Japanese prisoner-of-war camp in February, 1944.

The verdict, read by Maj. Gen. J. W. N. Hough of Glasgow, president of the seven-officer, all-British court, came toward the end of the third day of Harvey's army trial at Fort Osborne barracks here. They deliberated only about 10 minutes before reaching a decision.

THE 34-YEAR-OLD Royal Army Medical Corps sergeant, accused of killing Pte. John U. Friesen of the Winnipeg Grenadiers by beating him in Oeyama camp hospital, heard the verdict without any sign of emotion. Flanked by two Canadian Provost Corps sergeants he was immediately returned to detention to await general court martial on 29 other charges.

These include collaboration with the Japanese, improper retention of Red Cross parcels, striking a medical officer, Surgeon Lt. Cmdr. Stenning of the Royal Australian Naval Reserve, disobeying the order of Maj. H. M. S. G. Beadnell, RAMC, to stop striking prisoners of war, and assault on British, United States and Canadian soldiers.

Conduct Aerial Survey of North Railway Route

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

FORT ST. JOHN, B.C., March 14—A joint U.S. and Canadian aerial survey party was working out of Fort St. John today, checking maps and making general reconnaissance survey of the country with an eye to the construction of a railway to Fairbanks, which would link with transcontinental railways both in Canada and the United States.

THE PARTY, TRAVELLING in a Douglas DC3, arrived earlier in the week from the north, and has been out six and seven hours at a time since then. It is understood that three possible routes are being studied. These include first, a linkup with the CN and the CP on the west side of the mountains following the Parsnip Finlay river systems, and the Kechika Valley north through Watson Lake; second, a route through Prince George and Vanderhoof, up Stuart and Takla lakes following the Skeena to Dease Lake and north through Teslin Lake. The third possibility is from Hazelton along the Bel' Irving river to Telegraph Creek and on through Atlin Lake.

THE PARTY INCLUDES Frank Turner, civil engineer attached to the U.S. Engineers under the Sixth Service Command; George Dalziel, civil engineer formerly with the U.S. Search and Rescue Squadron based at Edmonton; Major Oldham, Royal Canadian Engineers, posted to the Northwest Staging Route; and Lt. Pengue, USAAF, pilot of the Douglas transport. Two U.S. technical arrgeants travel with the party as ground crew.

Stalin Headlined In British Press

LONDON, March 14.—(Reuters)—Almost without exception the British press today headlined Generalissimo Stalin's description of Winston Churchill as a "war-monger" for Mr. Churchill's recent speech at Fulton, Mo.

Typical were the headlines in the Conservative Daily Mail: "Sensational reply from the Kremlin to Britain's war leader—war-monger, closely resembling Hitler."

The diplomatic correspondent of the influential Liberal Manchester Guardian, called Gen. Stalin's statement "much the most important exposition of Russian policy towards the west that has been made since the war."

"THE SPEECH was hardly conciliatory," he continued. "It opens a new and perhaps grave chapter in international relations."

The Manchester Guardian editorially quoted Gen. Stalin as saying Mr. Churchill's speech had hindered collaboration, and asked: "Can Stalin point to any effort made by Russia for that collaboration in the last three months? All the evidence has pointed to a deliberate campaign to break up the British Empire, eject the British government and turn the United States against us. Unless there is a change soon world disaster can hardly be averted."

The Conservative Yorkshire Post, one other paper to comment at once on the Stalin statement, called for an end to "long-range recrimination," declared that suspicion could only be removed "by examination at the highest level" of three power policies and suggested a direct meeting between Mr. Stalin, President Truman and Prime Minister Clement Attlee.

UNRRA "Frig" Unit Made Into Stills

OLDENBURG, Germany, March 14 — (CP) — Mystery of missing parts of an UNRRA electric refrigerator, missing for some time, is solved. They formed parts of six illicit stills found by Canadian forces on a search of a Polish displaced persons camp at Sande, Germany. The stills were used for the manufacture of home-made schnapps.

Scout Leader Reveals Plans For Movement

Mussolini's false Balilla Boy Scout organization of Italy and Hitler's once-famed Jugend or Youth Movement, have passed away, and in Italy the real international scout movement has had a marvellous revival, and plans are being laid carefully for a new start in Germany at the urgent request of Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, John A. Stiles, chief executive commissioner of the Boy Scouts' Association in Canada, said here Thursday.

MR. STILES is in Edmonton on the way back to headquarters at Ottawa, after a visit to Vancouver in connection with Boy Scout Association activities.

The veteran executive commissioner of the famed organization for Canada, is highly enthusiastic over the outlook for the Boy Scout organization in the post-war period.

Mr. Stiles was scheduled to address a luncheon meeting of the Edmonton Rotary club Thursday on "The Men of Tomorrow." He has been 27 years an active official in the organization.

IN CANADA TODAY the organization has a total membership of about 100,000. During the war membership had dropped to about 85,000, but it is now on the way to surpassing the pre-war membership high of 103,000, Mr. Stiles said.

There are about 8,000 Boy Scouts in Alberta at the present time.

IT WAS THE enthusiastic reception given to organizers in the former enemy country of Italy and in most of the liberated countries of Europe, however, that is attracting chief interest at the present time, the executive commissioner said.

GREAT PARADES in Rome and Naples featured the return of the true scout movement in Italy after V-E Day and the work has the blessing and wholehearted approval of the Pope for both the Catholic and Protestant branches of the organization, Mr. Stiles declared.

In Germany the work of re-establishment of the true scout movement is proceeding slowly and with considerable care.

"IT HAS NOT been forgotten that Hitler converted the real scout organization into his Hitler Youth organization, one of the main elements from which the Nazi military and political organization grew," Mr. Stiles said.

Therefore in spite of the urgent request of Field Marshal Montgomery made to Lord Rowallan, chief scout for the British Empire, to start work in Germany as early as last August, the request had to be refused for the time being.

"WE TOLD Marshal Montgomery we could not impose the ideals of the scout organization on the German youth. They have got to really want it.

"The German Jugend movement died for two reasons. The harsh discipline that made obligatory the spying on mothers, fathers and friends was one reason. The second reason was that Germany lost the war," Mr. Stiles said.

IN A MAJORITY of other European countries with the exception of Russia, there are twice as many Scouts as in the pre-war days.

Canada did a fine job in printing 100,000 Scout handbooks for distribution in Europe. The work was started three years ago.

Lady Baden-Powell, widow of the founder of the Boy Scout movement will visit Edmonton in May while on a tour of Canada and Lord Rowallan, chief scout for the Empire will be in Canada next fall.

Stowaway Girl, 17, Is Safe in Canada

ST. THOMAS, Ont., March 14—(CP)—A long journey on which 17-year-old June Veronica (Judy) Buckley started out as a stowaway from Liverpool two months ago, ended happily yesterday when the girl arrived with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Rhys Edwards, at their home here.

The St. Thomas couple were instrumental in obtaining permission of Canadian immigration authorities for Judy's entry to Canada, after she had been held by United States immigration officials at Boston, where the ship docked.

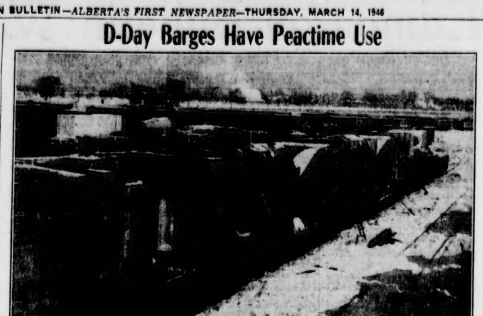

THE 17-YEAR-OLD Welsh girl from Bournemouth had been in a single room with her parents and younger sister after being forced off the one bombed-out house on another. "When I left home I told my mother I wouldn't be back until I found a proper place for them to live," she said here. "It was a grim and somewhat hopeless task —but now with the help of Uncle Rhys and Aunt Gwen I'm sure I'll be able to keep my word."

Now Judy says she's going to get a job and attend night school. "I was a waitress for a year in England but I want to take a secretarial course," she said.

WHALELIKE SUBMARINE

BRISBANE, Aus.—(CP)—When a British submarine Virtue ran through a school of whales, some 60 to 70 feet in length, laying on the surface of the water in Moreton Bay, Queensland, she was apparently accepted as one of the whales as she cruised within 20 yards of one monster without causing any reaction.

D-Day Barges Have Peactime Use

Weighing more than 30 tons, 72 feet in length, 21 feet wide and almost eight feet in depth, they have been purchased as towing barges in the pulp and paper industry at the head of the Great Lakes, and shortly will be in service in their new role.

Leagues Plan Talk on Grounds

Cromdale Community League recreation convener, A. V. Bourcier, M.L.A. was appointed to meet a representative of Bellevue Community League in order that they might enter agreement to discuss with city officials, the proposed sports ground which is to be shared by the two communities. The ground is situated between 112 avenue and the exhibition grounds feeder.

This decision was made at a meeting of the Cromdale Community League held Wednesday night. Mr. Bourcier was also given permission to hold a carnival in order to raise funds for the baseball team.

A party for Cromdale Juvenile hockey team, winners of the community league cup for this season, has been planned. Arrangements are also being made to present each player with a crest.

The next meeting of the league will be held on April 3 when the painting of the rink shack will be discussed. Chairman of the meeting was the league president, Mrs. J. J. Clarke.

Junior Chamber Reports Submitted

Taking the form of a gathering devoted entirely to business and a review of the past year's activities, the regular dinner meeting of the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce, held Wednesday in the Macdonald hotel, was attended by close to 200 members. Presiding was Paul Britton, executive vice-president.

Prior to the delivery of reports by chairmen and executive officers of a variety of Junior Chamber committees, President John McIntyre welcomed 12 new members to the Jay Cee movement, following their induction by the chairman of the personnel committee, George Shafer. Introduced as special guest was Tom Aldridge, recently returned from overseas and brother of Len Aldridge, past president of the Junior Chamber.

REPORTS ON COMMITTEE work were given by Ted Coupland, director of region 2, Alberta, for the National Junior Chamber; Vern Sadd, first vice-president in charge of external affairs; Alex McGregor, secretary of Get-Out-the-Vote committee; J. W. Sanderson, chairman of the personnel committee; Al Nichols, chairman of the beautification committee; Larry Hodgins, chairman for public health; Jim Surette, chairman of the tourist committee; L. A. Nichols, chairman aviation committee; George Shafer, chairman, personnel committee; and Al Heatherington, vice-president in charge of internal affairs.

A nominating committee to study candidates for the annual election of officers in May was organized under chairmanship of John McIntyre. Other members are George Shafer, Dick Horn, Joe Budd, and Paul Britton.

The club president, R. A. Mosher, conducted the meeting as chairman, with about 32 members in attendance.

To Try Germans For Murdering Fliers of RCAF

By ROSS MUNRO

AURICH, Germany, March 14—(CP)—Air Vice Marshal R. E. McBurney of Montreal, Saskatoon and Ottawa will be president of the court at the RCAF war crimes trials opening here Friday when three Germans face charges involving the killing of two Canadian airmen while prisoners of war. A fourth German will be tried for allegedly wounding a Canadian airman prisoner with intent to kill.

OTHER MEMBERS of the court are Group Capt. W. F. M. Newson of Montreal and Victoria and N. W. Timmerman of Kingston, Ont., both with the DSO and the DFC and Bar, and Wing Cmdrs. W. F. Parks of Regina and M. G. Brown of Montreal, both with the DFC and Bar.

The German accused will have two Canadian officers as defence counsel—Sqdn. Ldrs. Vic Collins of Bannville, Ont., and J. H. Hollies of Winnipeg.

The first case to be heard involves Johann Neitz, former German soldier, charged with firing two shots with intent to kill into FO. Rudolph Roman of Winnipeg. There is an alternative charge of wounding a prisoner of war. Roman had parachuted from his blazing bomber after a raid on Wilhelmshaven and Neitz allegedly shot the Canadian when he took Roman into custody. Roman is here now.

IN THE SECOND CASE the accused are Wilhelm Jung, Burgomaster of Overweier in Bavaria, and Johann George Schumacher, a member of the German Army, charged with being concerned in the killing of a member of the RCAF. The Canadian will not be named.

The prosecutor, Wing Cmdr. Pat Dordin of London, Ont., will contend that Jung ordered the Canadian to be shot and that schumacher kill'd the airman.

Accused in the third case is Hubert Broichrieu, charged with being concerned with killing an unknown member of the RCAF at Opladen in the Ruhr after a mob scene.

TAKE PRIDE IN ALBERTA!

Education via the MAIL BOX

The Little Red School House has taken to the Mails

AIR MAIL

It has taken to the mails in order to bring education to Alberta's 8,500 children who live in remote areas of the province, or who are confined to hospitals and institutions because of long illnesses, or whose district schools have closed because of the teacher shortage.

It has become known as the Department of Education's "Correspondence School Branch". Headquarters . . . Edmonton; Staff . . . 95 fully qualified teachers who, week after week, prepare lessons for mailing, and mark and correct workbooks and examination papers as they are returned. Enrollment . . . 8,500 pupils who are called to study . . . not by a school bell . . . but by the growl of the mail truck fighting its way through the mud and snow of the rural mail route . . . by the drone of the plane bringing mail into Coppermine and Fort McPherson . . . by the staccato barking of the huskies mushing toward some northern fur trading post . . . or by the crackle of a nurse's white uniform as she carries the mail to the children's ward of an Alberta hospital.

SCHOLASTIC STANDING HIGH

Correspondence School students are studying under handicaps undreamed of by children of urban schools, yet their scholastic standing is as high, sometimes higher, than that of urban and district school pupils. A number of them have received the governor-general's medal and other scholarships for outstanding achievement, and many graduates have enrolled at the universities.

ALBERTA'S LARGEST SCHOOL

The little red school house which took to the mails has become, not only Alberta's largest school, but also a tribute to the foresight of Alberta's pioneers of education, and a permanent reminder of the courage and determination of students whose desks were kitchen tables and whose introduction to education was a postage stamp.

Soviets Withdraw Manchuria Troops

CHUNGKING, March 14.—(AP)—National government dispatches today reported seven trains loaded with Russian troops, withdrawn from Mukden, had passed northward beyond Changchun, ostensibly bound by stages for Siberia.

The dispatches asserted the remainder of the Mukden Red Army garrison still at Changchun would follow shortly.

They also reported that underground elements now in the suburbs of Mukden, who formerly were suspected of readiness to cooperate with Chinese communists, had placed themselves at the service of National government authorities.

MEANWHILE SEVERAL thousand Chinese communist troops were said to be moving from Faku, 45 miles north of Mukden, in the direction of Fushun, great coal-mining centre 20 miles east of Mukden.

The Chinese central news agency had reported withdrawal of the last Soviet troops from Mukden Wednesday but added a "ferocious" fight had raged—presumably between Chinese factions—in the southern suburbs.

Tobacco Company Officials Are Here

E. F. Erzinger, Montreal, sales manager for Imperial Tobacco Co., of Canada, was an Edmonton visitor Thursday on a routine business tour of Western Canada.

Other officials of the company with Mr. Erzinger are F. W. Towler, Montreal, and George Lingwood, Winnipeg.

Bank Clearings

Bank clearings through the Edmonton Clearing House for the week ended March 14 amounted to $11,022,419.34 as against $8,852,644.61 for the corresponding week of last year.

Red Cross Blood Service Is Lauded

A contribution to the Northern Alberta Red Cross campaign from a grateful Edmonton physician, together with a note which accompanied his donation of $50, was described by campaign officials Thursday as typical of many received throughout the district.

The letter follows:

"I FEAR THAT THOSE of us who got our boys back (from the war) safely fail to be greatful; while my two boys were in the thick of it, they came back unscathed. But it was a great source of comfort to know that the life-saving and life giving blood was at their disposal if they needed it. There is no need for one of your workers wasting time calling on me. I am enclosing a cheque for $50. Sorry I cannot make it more. . . ."

The letter referred to the life-saving Red Cross blood donor service which throughout the war years provided vital plasma for wounded fighting men on all fronts. The service will be expanded to provide free plasma to all Canadians at all times, if the current Red Cross drive for financial support is successful.

SCORES OF DOCTORS in the Dominion have hailed the Red Cross transfusion plan as one of the greatest assets to the medical care of hospitalized Canadians. Officials of the Red Cross emphasize that much of the plan's development depends upon the success of the current drive.

Ex-Lumberman, J. A. Mair, Dies

Seventy-five-year-old John Alexander Mair, retired lumberman who played a prominent part in the establishment and development of Robertson United church in Edmonton died in the city Wednesday following a brief illness.

MR. MAIR, who retired from the ministry in 1909, soon after graduating from McGill University Congregational college, for 30 years was owner of the Inglewood lumber company here. He retired about three years ago. He was a native of Lanark, Ont.

He became associated with Robertson United when it was first established here. He served as elder for many years. For the last 12 years he had been superintendent of Sunday School activities at Sherbrooke Church near the Calder district.

Mr. Mair is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Percy Herring, and Kathleen, both of Edmonton; and one sister, Mrs. H. A. Day. A funeral service will be conducted Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at Howard & McBride's chapel by the Rev. Dr. Murdoch MacKinnon. Burial will be in Edmonton cemetery.

Letter From U.K. Reaches Edmonton Under Four Days

An Edmonton man Thursday was convinced that there's nothing at all the matter with the mail service between here and the Old Country. At 9 a.m., George Thomas of 10019 104 street, received a letter from his daughter-in-law, posted at Oxted, Surrey, England, at 4:15 p.m. Sunday—which adds up to the letter making a trip across the Atlantic and more than half-way across Canada in less than four days.

Vets' Counsellor To Make Tour

Travelling counsellor, M. C. Connors, of the department of veterans' affairs, will tour three Alberta points during next week. All veterans in the districts to be visited, who desire counselling on rehabilitation matters, are asked to contact Mr. Connors during his stay in their vicinity. A veterans' land act official will also be in attendance. The itinerary is as follows: Mercoal, March 18; Edson, March 19; and Jasper, March 20 and 21.

Old-Timer to Mark His 90th Birthday

Robert P. Watson, of 11518 95 street, retired city traveller for Lake of the Woods Milling Company, will mark his 90th birthday Monday. Native of Ontario, the old-timer is residing with a daughter, Mrs. May Clark, and a son, Walter Watson, city postal employee. Mr. Watson moved to Portage La Prairie in June, 1878, where he farmed for several years before coming to Edmonton. A son, Chad, resides in Vancouver, while there are two other daughters, one residing in Victoria, B.C., and another in California.

Youth, 15, Admits Theft of Cheques

Theft of $228.42 in service gratuity cheques from Edward Allen, Suite 7, Arlington hotel, has been admitted by a 15-year-old boy, according to city police, who said that the money had been obtained by stealing three cheques, each made out for $76.14. The youth told police that he experienced no difficulty in cashing the cheques at a local bank despite his age, and said that he spent $165 during the last three months. The remaining $63 has been recovered.

Essay Contest Winners Named

At the monthly meeting of the University Philosophical Society, Wednesday evening, winners of the MacEachran essay contest which was sponsored by the society, were announced by Dr. J. M. MacEachran. First prize of $25 went to Mary-lea Hollick-Kenyon. Winners of $15 and $10, respectively, were Lawrie Joslin and Marguerite Primeau.

NEWLY-APPOINTED officers to the society executive for 1946-47 were announced by Dr. W. Johns. A. Stewart will be honorary president. Dr. K. F. Argue will be the new president. Other members of the executive are: Vice-president, C. R. Tracy, secretary, L. Thomas and treasurer, J. H. Whyte. Student members will be Arthur Bryant and Archie Greenaway.

Guest speaker, Dr. A. G. McCalla, head of the plant research department, gave an address on "Some Canadian Contributions to Scientific Research." Dr. McCalla explained that research has been limited primarily to universities, government projects and private business enterprises. In universities the research is along fundamental exploratory lines, whereas in government research specific problems are the primary interest. In private research problems of interest to that industry are under study.

UNTIL THE PRESENT time only problems of necessity come under investigation. For this reason large scale research has been neglected in this country. The reasons for this are particularly lack of finances and facilities. Canada, as a result, does far less research, proportionately, than other leading countries. Dr. McCalla stated that finances were "totally inadequate for first rate work on a large scale."

make certain sacrifices. People didn't feel justified in howling about inadequate and overcrowded living conditions while their husbands and sons were out getting themselves wounded and killed. People also had money enough that they could afford to pay exorbitant rents for inadequate accommodation.

As long as their gratuities last, returned men are able to get by. They are so glad to be home that they don't complain too much about the accommodation they are able to get. And, by digging into their gratuities and savings they can afford to pay rents which they won't be able to afford when the gratuities and savings have been spent.

BY NEXT WINTER people who are living in shared accommodation will be getting on each others' nerves. The little arguments about who is going to use the kitchen first and who left the ring around the bathtub will have multiplied into open hostility. Families are going to be estrangled and friendships broken up. Mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law are going to believe all the stories they ever heard about the undesirability of living with the in-laws.

Even if the government does build the 50,000 homes they plan for the coming season, wages are not going to be up enough to enable the people who really need accommodation to live in them at the rents—$30 to 40 per month—that it is expected will be charged.

ALL THE PLANS which have been made for solving the housing problem in Canada to date—Wartime Housing, National Housing Act and Central Mortgage, along with private builders,—only help those people who are financially well enough off that they are quite capable of caring for themselves.

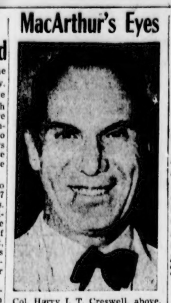

The governments of Canada have adopted strict building codes which make it necessary to build homes of certain minimum standards. Ordinary decency makes it imperative that these homes should have a certain minimum amount of accommodation. It is impossible to build a home that comes up to these standards at present day costs at less than $5,000 to $6,000 per unit.

SHORTAGES OF HOMES is complicating the employment situation. It has sabotaged the veterans' training scheme. It is Canada's number one problem at the present time—and from present indications is going to remain in first position for years to come.

It is in the interests of everyone of us—whether we own a home of our own or not—to insist that this problem should receive the immediate and complete attention of the government. It was government regulations which prevented private builders from coping with it—so the private builders claim. It was government regulations and national necessity which brought about the present situation. Therefore it is up to the government to straighten the matter out.

EVENTUALLY WE ARE going to have a subsidized housing scheme in the country—like other countries have—the sooner it is started the sooner this problem will be solved.

MacArthur's Eyes

Col. Harry I. T. Creswell, above, member of the General Staff Corps, has been given command of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's counter-intelligence department, succeeding Brig.-Gen. E. R. Thorpe, who returns to the U.S. Colonel Creswell organized U.S. counter-intelligence in the Pacific shortly after General MacArthur established headquarters in Australia.

Policeman's Life Far From Happy

LINDSAY, Ont., March 14.—(CP)—"A policeman's lot . . ." It certainly isn't, as far as Police Chief William Morgan of Fenelon Falls is concerned. Chief Morgan tendered his resignation because he doesn't think he should be required to act as rent collector, dog tax collector, dog license issuer, and supervisor of town.
